Six-Year Battle To Rezone Land Won by Lagiss

The six year long battle of reator Anthony G. Lagiss to rezone his property across from Acalanes High School ended in victory Wednesday.

At a meeting of the board of supervisors, unanimous approval was given on Lagiss' application to change the site from its present half-acre residential-agricultural status to a neighborhood-business area.

The 5-acre property, on which Lagiss currently has his real estate office, lies on the west side of Pleasant Hill Road across from the school.

THE MOTION for approval of the application was made by supervisor Ivan T. Goyak and seconded by board member W. G. Buchanan. As was generally anticipated, there were no negative votes.

Following a hearing October 9 on the Planning Commission's 5-2 recommendation the rezoning be allowed, the supervisors visited the site and evidently verified the planners' findings.

Among these findings was the invalidity of opponents' arguments that the area would become heavily commercialized if the application were granted.

SINCE THE application was submitted in September of 1950, residents in the Reliez Valley Road, Spring Hill Road, and Stanley Boulevard areas have been protesting the change.

They have voiced concern that the residential atmosphere of the community would be destroyed.

School District Superintendent Neil Parsons and Acalanes Principal Stanley Walgren expressed fear that the rezoning might result in the area becoming a "hangout" for students.

THESE PROTESTS were answered at the October 9 hearing by Lagiss' attorney, Bestor Robinson, who contended the only additional uses contemplated for the site are a Standard Oil service station and a grocery store.

Neither of these, he said, would be a "lure" to students.

Hearing Dropped On New Bus Line Application

The application of Sequoia Stages to operate a new bus service between Lafayette and Orinda Village will be approved or disapproved without a public hearing, the California Public Utilities Commission decided this week.

A hearing on the application, previously scheduled for last Wednesday in the Veterans Memorial Building, Lafayette, was dropped from the commission's calendar.

Eastshore Lines, the name under which the firm operates, applied to the PUC August 22.

The decision on the application will be made at some undisclosed time in the future, according to the PUC.

$8,250 Asked for Flood Damage

Damages to their home from storms and floods have caused an Orinda couple to file an $8,250 suit against the county.

In filing the suit, with County Clerk Walter T. Paasch, Victor W. and Alice Colburn contend that the county was negligent in maintenance of drainage channels, allowing their home at 21 Monte Vista Road to suffer damages last winter.

They maintain rainstorm overflow caused the damage on December 22, 1955, and again on February 22, 1956.

The couple assert their home settled, entailing a repair cost of $6500 or more, and that the home suffered $1750 depreciation.

'Rip-Rap' Wall Will Be Built At Moraga Hwy.

On recommendation of the County Public Works Department, the Board of Supervisors Wednesday approved Work Order 4251, for construction of a "rip-rap" wall on Moraga Highway, Orinda, with county forces, at an estimated cost of $1500.

Assistant Public Works Director Chester Smith explained yesterday that the wall will be erected to remedy an erosion condition near Moraga Valley Nursery, resulting from a replaced culvert pipe in a construction job of a couple of years ago.

He said the wall will be 2 or 3 feet high, of sacked concrete, for a distance of about 100 feet along the bank of the creek, from southwest of the culvert crossing to a point shortly north of the nursery.

Rotary Learns Of New Sunlight Energy Battery

A method of converting the sun's energy directly into electricity was explained to members of the Orinda Rotary Wednesday as they met at noon in the Willow Inn.

Demonstrating the new Bell solar battery at the meeting was James Smith of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, who was introduced by District Manager Howard Greenhatch.

The solar battery is the first device to so utilize energy from the sun, Smith explained. When first demonstrated in 1954, it was capable of converting six per cent of sunlight falling on it to electric current, he said.

The most important parts of the unit are its cells, composed of silicon, boron and arsenic, Smith explained.

Also coming in for explanation by Smith was the transistor, a speck of germanium metal about one-sixteenth inch thick, which performs the same functions as vacuum tubes.

Smith claimed that it generates not heat, requires only a fraction of the power needed to operate a vacuum tube, and can last indefinitely. Heat is the biggest enemy of vacuum tubes, making them burn out after about 5,000 hours of service.

The program was arranged by Frank Shirey and presided over by President Ramsay Underwood.

At the Rotary meeting, next Wednesday, Otto Heib, past district governor and past president of the Oakland Rotary Club, will speak on the opportunities for international service Rotary International offers.

The program is being arranged by Merle Brown and will be part of the local observance of Rotary Foundation Week.

Association Readies Drive; 13 Nominated

The annual membership drive of the Orinda Association will get under way next weekend, Association Secretary Claire Ward announced Monday night at a special meeting of the organization's Civic Affairs Committee at Orinda School auditorium.

Civic Affairs delegates agreed that the annual election of directors will follow the membership drive and that all candidates must have paid their association dues by the time of the election. The balloting is expected to occur early in December.

THIRTEEN candidates were nominated for four directorships by the Civic Affairs Committee. Chairman Bill Thurston stated that the entire Civic Affairs Committee acted as the nominating committee "in an attempt to negate charges that a clique is running things."

Voting will be by Orinda Association members throughout Orinda, but the candidates are from areas where board vacancies are occurring.

Present directorships from those areas expire the end of this year. The four new directors will serve for two years.

NOMINATED are: From the Tara Brook-Moraga Meadows area (present director: Mel Arighi, president) — Norman Cunningham, Frank Shirey, Earl Vicars, Clyde MacDonald.

From the Hacienda del Orinda-Snug Harbor-Orinda Estates area (present director: Mrs. Robert D. Harrison) — Robert Thaman, Fred Twining, Ted Taylor.

From the Oak Springs-Encinas de Moraga area (present director: F. A. Sawyer) — Vernon Axelson, Mrs. Dorothy Adie, Clarence Betz.

From the Glorietta-Moraga Park-Rheem Highlands area (present director: Paul Pollacek) — Arthur M. Flint, Maynard Buehler, Ned de Lavaca.

In another action, the Civic Affairs Committee accepted Dr. J. M. Boulware as the new delegate from the Inland Valley Improvement Association, to replace Joseph Zablocki.

Quarry Opponents Gain Support; Decision Delayed

Opposition to the Redwood Canyon rock quarry application of A. J. McCosker grew within the ranks of the Board of Supervisors this week as decision was delayed for another week.

With the final verdict on the long-standing controversy to have been handed down Wednesday morning, the supervisors deferred the action until 10:30 a.m. next Tuesday.

DECISION WAS delayed Wednesday to give McCosker an opportunity to submit a better and more accurate plot plan of his proposed quarry site.

According to Mathew Walker, deputy district attorney, the plan presented by the prospective operator of the hotly-opposed quarry was unsatisfactory because "it is indefinite and not precise."

Meanwhile, two of the five supervisors who will decide the fate of the quarry operation have indicated they intend to vote to deny the McCosker application. Both W. G. Buchanan of Pittsburg and J. Frederickson of Antioch expressed the feeling at Wednesday's meeting in Martinez that establishment of the quarry at this time would be "premature."

"I THINK that the opening of this operation now would be premature," said Frederickson. I cannot go along with it."

This was also the opinion of Buchanan, who felt that the operation should wait at least until the Shepherd Canyon Freeway is built.

Another objection voiced by Frederickson was in line with the voluble protests of many local residents. . . that of the proposed use of Redwood Canyon-Pinehurst Road as a quarry access.

Fine Weather Favors Voters

Give the weatherman some credit for the electorate's record turnout Tuesday.

The rare beauty of a sunny Indian summer day was a pleasure added to the privilege of voting.

From a chilly 56 degrees in both Orinda and Lafayette November 1, the week warmed slowly but steadily. Lafayette came off with high for the week with 79 degrees November 7, while Orinda showed 76 the same day.

A gentle rain in Orinda last Thursday was measured at .02 inch, bringing season's total to 4.38 inches. With no precipitation recorded in this period, Lafayette's total remains 3.62 inches.

The weather bureau lists the record:

Mel Nielsen Wins In Supervisor Race

Wallace Trails In 2nd District By 649 Votes

With 836 absentee ballots still to be counted November 23, Mel Nielsen of Lafayette emerged as the apparent winner in Tuesday's election of county supervisor from the Second District.

Final unofficial returns from all 97 precincts in the district gave Nielsen 9579 votes, and gave his opponent Clarence R. Wallace of Danville, 8930.

THIS 649 LEAD will be sufficient to place Nielsen on the Board of Supervisors for a 4-year term starting in January if he receives about 12 per cent of the absentee votes (assuming that all 836 absentee ballots have votes for supervisor on them).

It all 836 absentee ballots have votes for supervisor on them, Nielsen with only 94 of the absentee votes could defeat Wallace with the remaining 742 absentee votes.

Such an eventuality would give Nielsen a one vote edge—9673 to 9672.

IN THE HEAVY voting Tuesday, Nielsen, a Lafayette tire dealer, piled up considerable majorities against Wallace, a retired Marine Corps brigadier general, in a number of Central Contra Costa County communities.

Wallace's lead in other communities was not enough to overcome Nielsen.

MORAGA, St. Mary's, Lafayette, Orinda and San Ramon gave the nod to Nielsen.

Lafayette, where Nielsen lives and operates his business, voted for him 3452 to 2662. Orinda favored Nielsen by 2740 to 2633.

San Ramon gave Nielsen 109 votes; Wallace, 100.

OUTSIDE the community of San Ramon, Wallace led in the San Ramon Valley—1434 to 1050 in Danville, Wallace's own community, and 978 to 491 in Alamo.

Canyon gave Wallace 45 votes, Nielsen 31.

WALLACE WAS top man in the June primary election, with 3909 votes, followed by Nielsen with 2546.

The other five candidates in the primary trailed. In order, they were Edward Larmer, Eunice Koller, William Zion, Harold Mutnick and David Comstock.

The fall election campaign in the Second District supervisorial race was spirited. Both Nielsen and Wallace made many appearances before meetings and groups throughout the district.

No Cease Fire In Gasoline War

There is no cease-fire in the Central county gas war.

Prices at area service stations still vary from 25.9 to 26.9 cents per gallon for regular, and 28.9 to 31.9 for ethel.

The end is not in sight, say service station managers. The drop in prices began more than two weeks ago in the Richmond and San Pablo areas, and spread over the rest of the county.

The Retail Gasoline Operators Association of Richmond last week reported that the gas war was at an end.

Grand Jury Group Confers With Silverman

The Law Enforcement Committee of the County Grand Jury met with Sun Publisher Herman Silverman for two and a half hours Monday night.

Silverman said that any statement will have to come from the committee.

Gordon Langlois of Richmond is chairman of the committee.

Incumbent Upset In District 5 Supervisor Race

A political upset was scored in Supervisorial District Five as Judge Joe Silva of Brentwood defeated incumbent Jake Frederickson by 229 tallies. The final was Silva, 4502; Frederickson, 4273.

The county clerk's office reported 223 absentee ballots were still to be counted. Even if the incumbent were to receive every ballot it would still be impossible for him to win.

IN SUPERVISORIAL District Two it is still possible mathematically for C. R. Wallace to win, according to the county election office.

Two new supervisors will be taking office in January, replacing Jack Cummings, who will retire and Jake Frederickson who was defeated by Silva.

The board roster will read Ivan Goyak, Mel Nielsen or Wallace, Ray Taylor, Bud Buchanan and Silva.

Ike Edges Stevenson In County

President Dwight D. Eisenhower just edged Adlai Stevenson in Contra Costa County according to final tabulations compiled by the county election department.

Incumbents had an easy time of it with the exception of Tom Kuchel who lost, at least in this county, to Richard Richards, democratic candidate for the office of U. S. Senator.

John Baldwin was successful in both Contra Costa and Solano counties over Democratic candidate H. Roberts Quinney. George Miller Jr. swept over Jack Pedder of Lafayette by nearly 50,000 votes. Don Doyle garnered enough votes to beat Russ Koch by 20,000.

The county voted democratic as was predicted by the political fortune tellers.

Proposition four and ten were defeated by county voters. Proposition four suffered its defeat by 70,000 votes and ten went down by 30,000 tallies.

The At Large seats for the Bi County Transit district went to Robert M. Copeland and Claire McLeod. Seat for Ward One of the transit district went to Robert K. Barber of Kensington.

Here are the totals of Contra Costa's 731 precincts.

Concord Realtors May Join Local Board to Better MLS

Concord realtors may soon rejoin the Contra Costa Real Estate Board.

Board Secretary Wayne Bailey said today that Fred Silvey, president of the Concord Real Estate Board, suggested that the groups merge at a Board of Directors meeting last week.

Then, a committee with William Anderson, Buck Johnson, Nick Carter and Lloyd Holton met to talk it over. Bailey, Carter, Silvey and Concord Board Secretary Margaret Caudell were to meet this week to arrange terms.

THE MOVE WOULD add about 100 brokers and salesmen to the Contra Costa Board, and would improve greatly the scope of the multiple listing service, especially in the Pleasant Hill area," said Bailey.

The Concord realtors broke off from the local board seven years ago, and began serving Concord, El Cerrito and Pacheco.

"This will also allow us to consolidate our thinking about planning and zoning in the middle areas," Bailey commented.

The new members would be in the Concord Division of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board. There is also an Orinda Division, and well known is the Women's Division. The Orinda Division has 12 members.

IF THE Concord realtors decide to join, they will have representation on the board of directors.

In this county, there are also the Martinez Board, the East Contra Costa Board and the Richmond-El Cerrito Board, earlier called the West Contra Costa Board.

President-elect of the local board is Nick Carter, who will be installed soon.

Playshop to Open 'Double Door' at Acalanes Tonight

All eyes in the Acalanes High School little theater tonight will be fixed with intent to see what lies behind the "Double Door," during the first of three presentations of the play.

From the moment the curtain rises at 8:30 p.m. on this production of the Lafayette Playshop, the audience will be drawn into the electrifying tension of the mystery.

The action of the melodrama, written by Elizabeth McCadden, revolves about the bitter struggle carried on by Victoria Van Bret, played by Thais Ackerman, to dominate her sister and half brother and the Van Bret millions.

Taking the roles of these subservient members of her family are Joy Merrick and Ed Fosdahl.

Also involved in the intrigue are supporting Playshop actors George Becker, Lloyd Holton, Ada McDaniell, Charles Bosley, Roy Fisher, Bonnie Bosley, Kay Looz and Sherman Coakley.

Costuming has been done by Jude McHaney, while the sets and lighting effects are being handled by Les Ackerman, Barry Wylsling and the back-stage crew.

The show will also play tomorrow night and on November 16 and 17.

Tickets may be purchased at the door for tonight's performance and may be secured in advance for the later date by phoning YE 4-8382.

Net proceeds from all performances will benefit a scholarship fund to help outstanding high school graduates further their studies in drama or the other arts.

Representatives Help Students Select Collges

Acalanes Seniors, with the aid of their individual counselors, are currently engaged in reviewing potential colleges and universities in which to complete their formal education.

As part of the selection program, the Don counseling department has arranged student interviews with more than 20 college representatives to discuss requirements, educational programs and tuition.

To date, representatives from the University of Chicago, Reed College, Whitman College, Mills College and Claremont College have met with students.

In the near future students will interview representatives from the University of California, University of San Francisco, Dartmouth, Harvard, Occidental, Contra Costa Junior College.

Additional collegiate representatives are being scheduled to meet with Acalanes Seniors as the year progresses, according to Bruce Handley, director of counseling.

Sisterhood to Meet Wednesday

The East Bay Reciprocity Bureau of the P.E.O. Sisterhood will meet in the Emanuel Presbyterian Church, 49th and Webster, Oakland, on Wednesday evening.

Dinner will be served at 6:30. After a business meeting, a program will be presented by Chapter JA.

All unaffiliated P.E.O.'s are cordially invited to attend. Reservations may be made by calling or writing Sylvia Garrison, OLYmpic 3-7959, 5615 Ocean View Drive, Oakland.

Locals Hold Family Meet to Honor Uncle

Twenty-five relatives of the Charles Kerstens of Canon Drive gathered for a buffet dinner last Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. Kerstens' uncle, L. G. Leist, who is a dentist in Lamar, Colorado.

Another special guest was Leist's daughter, Mrs. R. D. Horn from Los Altos, who made the trip to visit her father while he was vacationing here.

Sol Greet's Guests On Return to Area

Old Sol came out with full cooperation when the Jess Longs of South Trail entertained Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fasset and family from Temple City on their return from a snowy and rainy two weeks in Washington and Oregon.

They stated as they crossed the state line the sun beamed forth as if the Chamber of Commerce had pushed the "Sunny California" button in their behalf.

Dramateurs Score Again: 'Anastasia'

By JULIUS ROSENTHAL

At the risk of blemishing my reputation, I must admit that I am no wiser today than I was last week regarding the claim of Anastasia that she was the youngest daughter of the czar.

But this lack of development on my part is a tribute to the Dramateurs, whose skillful presentation of the play "Anastasia" is so able and so subtle that one is convinced and yet not convinced by the claims and counter-claims portrayed against a background of 1926 Europe.

The Marcelle Maurette opus was given at the Berkeley Little Theater, Alhambra, Berkeley, last Friday and Saturday nights. It will be presented there again tonight and tomorrow night. Current time is 8:30.

BASIS of the play was the real-life political and social mystery of the late 1920's, in which a woman appeared in Hungary and said she was the Princess Anastasia, youngest daughter of the czar.

In the current production the drama revolves around Anna Bronin's appearance in Berlin in 1926, the acceptance or rejection of her as the Princess Anastasia, and whether she had escaped the massacre of the royal family.

Alice Swenning as Anna and Patricia Winkworth as the Dowager Empress are, without doubt, the outstanding performers of the play. They do a job which adds to their and the Dramateurs' luster.

CONSPIRATORS, for their own selfish purpose of getting their hands on the czar's money in London banks, try to prove to the exiled Russian colony that Anna is really Princess Anastasia.

These conspirators do not believe her story, but attempt to exploit it to serve their own ends.

In their roles as the unscrupulous schemers, Eddie Woltz (Prince Bonine), Gordon Kull (Chernov) and Paul Polaczek (Petrov) perform effectively.

Supporting roles are all well handled — by Jewel Scheeline (Baroness Livenbaum), Paul Hansen (Prince Paul), Leonard Nachman (sleigh driver), Wirtabel Harris (charwoman), James Harris (Counselor Drivinitz), John Reed (Dr. Serensky), Grace Duffy (Varya) and Stanley Wiggin (Sergei).

That Carl Rasmussen is a director of top ability has been demonstrated a number of times in his work for the Dramateurs — and this is again underscored by his direction of "Anastasia."

In his latest job he has had the able assistance of Betty Reynolds and Bette Apgar.

HONOR STUDENTS

Last year 236 students, or 10.8 per cent of the total Acalanes High School District enrollment, qualified for membership in the C.S.F., state academic honor society.

Many Local Friends See Czaja Show in City

Many local people were seen among the several hundred guests who attended the Preview party in San Francisco October 29 for the current exhibition of paintings at the Rotunda Gallery of the City of Paris.

The exhibition includes twenty-one paintings by Michael Czaja of Walnut Creek, together with works of artists John Gill, Antonio Sotomayor, and William Ross Cameron.

Czaja is Professor of Architecture at the University of California, and has been a resident of Walnut Creek for eight years. He formerly taught at Washington State College and at Bennington College in Vermont.

Czaja has been painting since 1938 and since that time has been represented in many art shows and in one-man exhibits throughout the country. His one-man shows previously seen in this area include one at the San Francisco Palace of the Legion of Honor in 1942, and one at the San Francisco Museum of Art in 1951.

HIS WORK has been seen locally since 1950 in exhibits of the Valley Art Center (formerly Outdoor Art Shows, Inc.) and in the rental collection at the Artists Market in Lafayette.

His "Thorned Melody" was the first purchase made for the Dorothy Moore Brown Memorial Collection at the Artists Market.

Czaja has been active in community art activities, having served in various capacities on the Board of Directors of the Valley Art Center, and serving as President of this organization during the past year.

AMONG THE MANY friends of the Czaja's who attended the preview were:

Messrs. and Mesdames Robert Clough, Edmund Barnett, Arthur Wagstaff, Leon Dinkin, Rawlings Simon, Les Scharrer, Glen Max, Stanley Kwiat, Lyle Lund, Wendell Spackman, Frank Cashin, Joseph Connery, Tevis Jacobs, Fred Ruckert, Ward Lockwood and Captain and Mrs. Stanley Kwiat.

Also attending were Messrs. Philip Faulconer, Harold Stump and James Klausner and Mesdames Mary McClintock, Mary Gill Price and Sally Roberts.

Safety Earns EBMUD Refund

Safety on the job during the year 1955 has earned better than $45,000 for the East Bay Municipal Utility District, Vice President A. C. Carrington reported today.

The dividend was in the form of a premium refund check for $45,301.97, presented to the Utility District by the State Compensation Insurance Fund.

The refund was made possible by reduced claims for injuries to EBMUD employees during the year.

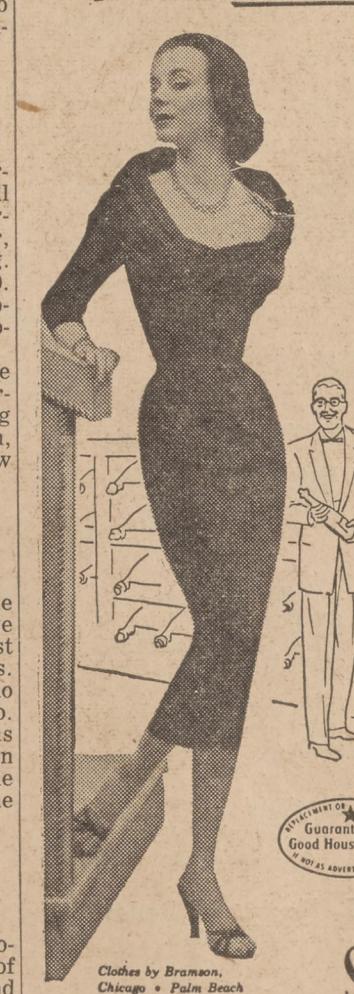

Carrington stated that savings of this size are helpful in maintaining low water rates, but emphasized that "the safety of our employees is our first consideration in promoting job safety."

"Accidents are expensive in human suffering for the employee and his family, and we are doing our utmost to keep up the remarkable accident prevention record set by the District over the past several years," he said.

ADULT PROGRAM

Some 3250 residents in the Acalanes District attended the district's adult program last year, studying one or more of the 60 courses offered.

William Palmer is Heart Fund Campaign Chairman

William S. Palmer, Walnut Creek businessman, will be general chairman of the 1957 Heart Fund campaign in Contra Costa County, Dr. James F. Embick, president of the County Heart Association, announced this week.

The County Heart Association, affiliated with the American Heart Association, will conduct its annual fund raising drive from February 1 to 28.

IT WILL REACH a peak on Heart Sunday, February 24, with a door-to-door collection conducted by hundreds of local Heart Fund volunteers.

Last year a total of $20,000 was collected for the Heart Fund in this county, a major portion being retained locally and in the state to support heart programs, said Embick.

Palmer is a past president of the Walnut Creek Rotary Club and was a governor's representative in forming Rotary Club in Pleasant Hill and Danville.

He is president of the Walnut Creek High 12 Club and a member of Alamo Lodge No. 122, P. & A. M.

IN 1954, PALMER was Walnut Creek chairman for the United Crusade and in 1955 he was United Crusade's Advance Gifts chairman. He lives with his wife at 7 Sky Terrace, Danville, and is the father of three daughters, as well as the proud grandfather of six boys, two of whom were born last month.

The purpose of the annual drive, Palmer declared, is to support the association's research, lay and professional education, and community service programs.

"In my opinion, the heart disease problem is the leading threat to the nation's health, and most deserves the support of the people of our community and our nation," he added.

"The heart diseases accounted for more deaths last year than all other causes of death combined. Moreover, one in every 16 persons in the United States suffers from a heart or cardiovascular ailment," he stated.

Research is the primary weapon in the attack on the heart problem, he pointed out. An average of 40 per cent of all funds raised by Heart Associations throughout the country last year was allocated to scientists and scientific research, he said.

Panel Talks On Therapy Center Held

The Speakers Bureau of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center held a panel discussion yesterday at the Center.

The discussion, titled, "An Introduction into the Speakers Bureau," was led by Edmund S. Barnett, a past-president of the board of directors of the Center.

Members from the Center's board of directors were invited to speak on finances, operations, new building, auxiliaries, and medical advisory committee of the Center.

They included James Simonds and Charles Wood, president of the Center; Mesdames Owen Williams and Juanita Benoy, administrator of the Center.

The purpose, structure, and promotion of the Speakers Bureau was discussed by Bureau members. A speaker's manual was reviewed by E. Leaf, one of the manual's editors.

Speakers Bureau members there were Samuel Bradbard, George Eberhard, King Parker Jr. and Roscoe Jones; and the Mesdames M. C. Bolender, Leo Kiely, Hugh Gordon, F. R. Powers and Charles Smith.

Mrs. Irene Macdonald, social worker at the Center, gave a brief speech on her work. Members of the board of directors were also invited to attend.

Mrs. Howard E. Burk of Walnut Creek, a member of the board of directors, is chairman of the Speakers Bureau. Her committee consists of George Eberhart and Mrs. E. Niederkruger.

Women Ready Christmas Seals

In about a week local residents will be receiving their annual Christmas Seals, the little stamps whose sale means a step toward recovery for victims of tuberculosis.

The seals will be sent throughout the county by members of women's clubs from most local communities. These women are currently busy preparing the seals for delivery from the Women's Club building in Martinez.

Representatives from the women's clubs in Pleasant Hill, Walnut Creek, Lafayette, and from the Lafayette Suburban Club, are among those helping stuff the seals and getting them ready for mailing.

Youth Concerts Ticket Campaign Is Successful

The Board of Directors of the Central Contra Costa Youth Concerts reported this week that the recent campaign for subscriptions was "very successful."

Mrs. James Perry, Association president, credited area volunteers, school administrators, Parent Teacher Associations and parent groups.

Persons who did not apply for subscriptions during the campaign, may still obtain them by contacting Mrs. Charles Offen, Box 83, Walnut Creek.

The concerts will be held on the last Sundays in January, February, March and April in the Las Lomas High School auditorium.

Appearances will be made by the entire San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, the University of California Glee Club, the Treble Clef Society, ballad singer Stan Wilson and the Berkeley Youth Symphony.

Subscriptions were taken at the local schools last Friday by the following workers: Mesdames: Buena Vista: Allen Scholl, R. C. Huntoon, and Leonard Barnes; Murwood: Jack Moore and Kenneth Polesland; Parkmead: Marshall Gordon, H. G. McLaughlin, D. R. Green and Everett Goins; Walnut Creek: T. H. Marston; Walnut Heights: John H. Strong.

Doyle to Speak On Textbooks

Donald D. Doyle, chairman of the Assembly Education Committee, will speak on "The Printing of Text-books" at the Tuesday meeting of the Mt. Diablo Council of Parents and Teachers at 12:30 p.m. at the Concord Recreation Center, 1975 Parkside Street, Concord.

This meeting has been set for Tuesday instead of Monday because November 12 is a school holiday, Veteran's Day.

The hostesses will be Wren Avenue, Clayton and Crawford Village.

Rummage Items To Benefit Blind

Rummage donations are now being received at a container at King's Food Center in Orinda to benefit the Enchanted Hills Camp for the Blind.

Lighthouse members, planning on their annual rummage sale November 16, request that for pick-up service for used clothing, household wares, bric-a-brac, and furnishings, a call be made to Marion Long at CL 4-3402.

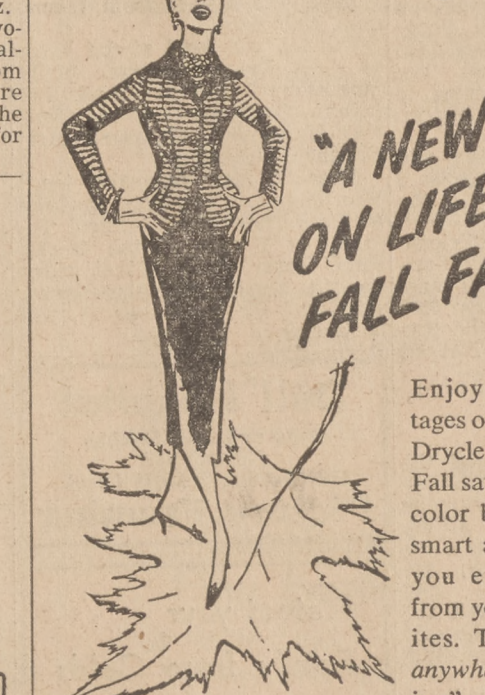

Correction

Safeway Stores in this area will be open as usual Monday (Veteran's Day), from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m., the firm announces.

Safeway advertisements in this week's Sun and Sun Shopping News erroneously state that the Safeway Stores in Lafayette and Walnut Creek will be closed Monday.

"CHANGE FOR EXCHANGE" collected by the American Field Service Club of Acalanes High School on Hallowe'en amounted to over $800—more than enough to bring another high school student from Europe to Acalanes next year. Jeanne Hunnicutt, club treasurer, and Alan Hewitt, president, happily count the money given by area residents when the club members called on them.—Sun photo by Mattson

Go to Church Sunday

Lutheran

"A Real Sacrifice" will be the sermon theme of the Rev. Merle O. Tolleson, pastor of Our Savior Lutheran Church, 1035 Carol Lane, Lafayette, at the 8:15 and 11 a.m. worship services Sunday. Nursery accommodations are available during the 11 a.m. service.

The Sunday School meets at 9:30 a.m., with classes for pre-school through adult Bible class. Alpha Chi, the young people's group for all in senior high school and older, will also meet at 9:30 a.m.

At 11 a.m. there are classes for pre-school through grade three. Sunday evening at 5:30, there will be a congregational supper meeting at the church. Dr. Gerald Falde, president of the California District of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, will make his regular visit of the parish in connection with the "Parish Analysis and development program."

Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. the Women's Missionary Federation will meet at the church. Included in the program will be installation of officers and a report on the Circuit Convention held November 3 at Palo Alto.

The Mid-Week Bible Study will be held Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rodman, 1025 Willow Drive, Lafayette.

Thursday morning at 10 a.m. the Women's Study Group will meet in the Fellowship Hall of the church. At 7 p.m. the Junior Confirmation Class and the Junior Choir will meet at the church. The Senior Choir meets at 8 p.m.

Saturday morning at 9 a.m. the Board of Parish Education will meet at the church. The Senior Confirmation Class will meet with the pastor at 10 a.m.

Pastor G. Raymond White will preach on "Pen Pictures of Christ: His Transfiguration," at the 11 a.m. service Sunday at the Lafayette Covenant Church.

Virginia Ball will direct the choir in the singing of an anthem, with Josephine Rued at the organ and Edna Friberg at the piano.

Lutheran

Services at Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church, 294 Orchard Road, Orinda, will be held at 8 and 11 a.m. Sunday, with Sunday School at 9:30 a.m.

Pastor Hidy will preach on "Jesus Christ Is Our Peace." Sunday School classes will be held for all age groups and a nursery is provided during church services.

Each Tuesday evening at 6:30 p.m. the Confirmation Class will meet for study, preparing youth for church membership. Youth in the seventh grade or higher are invited.

Each Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. Pastor Hidy conducts an adult instruction class for all who wish to learn more of the church and who desire to become members. Classes are conducted at the church.

On November 15 at 8 p.m., the weekly Bible study will be held in the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. McCormack, 141 Lombardy Lane, Orinda.

The Luther League meets each Sunday evening at 7 p.m. at the church for discussion, fellowship and recreation.

Episcopal Services of Holy Communion at 8 a.m. and Morning Prayer at 9:15 and 11 a.m. will be held Sunday at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, 12 Via Las Cruces, Orinda.

The Rev. Albert Lucas, vicar, will be the celebrant at the 8 o'clock service and will officiate at the later services.

Kendrick Morrish, general chairman of the Every Member a Steward Crusade will address the congregation at both Morning Prayer services on the stewardship program and the proposal which has been made estimating the needs of the church.

Orinda Jaycees To Get Charter Tomorrow Night

Orinda's new Junior Chamber of Commerce will receive its charter tomorrow evening and become an official unit of the international organization.

The charter will be presented in ceremony to President Jack Martin by Hans Beetz, president of the Lafayette Junior Chamber of Commerce, during a banquet at the Willow Inn.

Irving M. (Izzy) Gold, president of the California State Junior Chamber of Commerce, will be the featured speaker.

Guests of honor will be Merle Brown, president of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce, and Mel Arghi, president of the Orinda Association.

The importance of the national and local elections was stressed Monday by Mrs. Clarence Smith of Orinda, who acted as chaplain as members of the Acalanes Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met at the home of Mrs. Ernest Ford on Boyer Circle, Lafayette.

Regent Mrs. A. L. Ammen informed the group that they will be a hostess chapter at the state-wide D.A.R. conference in March. She also appointed several Acalanes members to attend the Council meeting in San Francisco December 7.

Mrs. Harvey Lyon told of the responsibilities of D.A.R. members.

The December meeting of the local chapter will be held in the Piedmont home of Mrs. Ammen. Mrs. Rice, state chairman of community Service, will be the guest speaker.

Mrs. Irwin Miller of Rowe Place, Lafayette, recently returned from a business-vacation trip to New York and New England with her husband.

She commented on the beauty of the New England states at this time of year.

Election Results To be Analyzed Mrs. Gladys Penland, state president of the California Federation of Republican Women, will give an analysis of election returns to members of the Orinda Republican Women's Club next Thursday at 10 a.m. in the Orinda Community Church.

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

Don't throw that paint brush, Papa!

If the Lady of the House has decided to redecorate this fall she's probably dumped pursfuls of color chips of the whole darn colorizer book in the family's lap looking for their o.k. on the perfect paint to match that wedding-gift vase she's had closeted for years.

If you've ever been confronted w/the myriad of hues dreamed up by color experts to launch the contemporary House & Garden look, you've been utterly confused!

TO THE MERE MAN, turquoise blue is turquoise blue and this robin-egg stuff is silly business, but to the feminine gender who's been endowed w/an extra sense for such things, turquoise blue can be any one of some 64 shades and by daylight or dimlight, some 64 more!

IT NEVER FAILS that before the paint is barely dry, Milady sighs that it's NOT exactly what she had in mind, and MOST of us are like that!

IF YOU THINK YOU'VE HAD painting problems . . . One obliging husband, to please his pretty wife, painted all four sides of the house a different shade of green . . . So far the neighbors haven't noticed and the missus is still trying to make up her mind which shade she likes best for the overall job.

Another lady we know has the window sashes in a variety of colors, side, front and back . . . A year ago she tho't this was a good solution to picking the final trim color, and she's still trying to make up her mind!

Long distance directions did it

BY CONCENTRATING ON MUMS AND YUMS, Rita (Mrs. George) Bowersox makes an awful lot of people happy! Garden lovers welcome her tips on mum culture and gourmet friends are generously gifted w/her pet recipes which she makes up in mimeo form to keep up w/the supply and demand.

The grown sons of the Bowersox, their mother's most ardent fans, are as adept at handling a skillet full of mushrooms as they are at casting a reel . . . When James Hays Bowersox, now living in NYC, decided to host a dinner party in his new Manhattan apartment and SOS'd his mother for menus and help, she long-distanced directions, right down to the buying of the last escalot . . . the man-about-town's guests were DULY IMPRESSED, begged to know who his caterer was and couldn't believe he'd taken over the kitchen himself!

Another son, Charles Spencer, living in the southland, surprised his prospective in-laws by cooking a complete dinner-delicious and then dishing up his own delectable home-made apple pie, still warm from the oven, for dessert!

ON THE GARDEN CIRCUIT, Mrs. Bowersox, who shares her hobby of mums through lectures and a garden column for the nat'l mum publication, received pats and plaudits last week on designing an arch of mums which captured the theme "Autumn Rainbow" and under which guests passed during the 6th annual show by the Mum Study Club of the East Bay, held in WC . . . Mrs. Bowersox, whose pet project is to show the home gardener how the fabulous varieties of mums usually seen only a flower shows can be grown right in their home backyard, lives midway between Orinda and Lafayette on Diablo Circle with her husband, George, who shares her enthusiasm for gardening and good food!

A pair of prize ducats

The "Curtain Callers," now a going and growing concern of young thespians, have elected Judy Howes as their new president . . . she is the eldest daughter of the Ted Howes of Loma Vista.

ON A BILL FROM BLACK'S — "On meat balls paid by the 15th of the month, green stamps issued" . . . (SOMEBODY must have had spaghetti and an approaching lunch hour in mind!)

TRAVEL NOTES . . . The George Burroughs of Miner Rd. flew off to NY this week for a month's business trip, and having "captured" tickets to "My Fair Lady" are anticipating an exciting theater season . . . Mr. Burroughs, VP of Safeway, and his wife Sonoma moved here recently from a lakeside home in Oakland, have been busy putting in a pool and getting indoctrinated into life suburbia! The couple expect to return in time for Thanksgiving w/their grandchildren.

Home from a scenic pleasure trip, Ernest and Helen Drews who drove to Pismo Beach and on to Arizona where they guested w/former Orindans, the Joe Cottons . . . Sightseeing included the Grand Canyon, and being snowed-out of Bryce.

The Les Rowes are piggy-banking for a trip to Plymouth, England, next summer . . . The Andrew Hartanov family is doing the same for a family cruise to the Islands.

Another director to be heard from

GET WELL CARDS . . . To Marge Tesman, mother of six, who's had the cooperation of all her brood since being bedded down w/a back ailment suffered from a fall down stairs . . . Helen Gibbs, back in a wheelchair, after a leg injury sustained while playing tennis . . . Lo Glascock, w/her foot bone on the mend, finds it works well as a dependable weather forecaster reacting sharply to barometric pressure and giving a forewarning of rain.

WHAT'S IN A NAME . . . The John Van Dynes named her Courtney Elizabeth, new sister to daughters Dana and "Duffy" . . . Frank and Sev Schnugg who can count eight in their crew, named their new one Patricia Marie after a "board of directors" decision by Stephen, Mary, Peter, Susan Nancy Ann and Jane.

Perfect Driving

"Defensive driving" was what earned him a perfect record as a driver for the General Petroleum Corporation, according to Henry Schwing, 121 El Toyonal, Orinda.

Schwing made this claim after having been awarded by his employers for having driven a total of 382,484 accident-free miles in the past 22 years.

This is the equivalent of 63,747 round trips from San Francisco to New York City.

Mask Makers Liven 8th Birthday Party

Laurel Kersten celebrated her eighth birthday with a gathering of friends who furnished much of their own entertainment by creating Halloween masks from paper bags and imagination. Guests were Karen Detloff, Joan Gilbert, Jeanie Lee, Connie McClure, Leslie Buink and Leslie Petersen.

Spring Dance To be Mom's Club Project

A spring dance was announced this week by the Orinda Mothers Club as the club's annual project. The results of a recent parents' poll at room meetings at all five schools were presented to Mothers Club Board members last Monday by Mrs. Charles Erickson, president.

The vote, offering the choice of a dance, stage show (Absurdia in Suburbia VI), or fashion luncheon, gave a 5 to 4 margin to the dance over Absurdia, which was runner-up.

As it was last year, the dance will be held at the Diablo Country Club. The chairman and date are yet to be announced.

A new Orinda recreation program, proposed by Frank Isola, director of physical education for the Orinda School District, was given the support of the Mothers Club board.

Membership in the Mothers Club is at an all time high, according to Mrs. Rudolph Grah, membership chairman, who termed the recent drive a great success.

"We have a membership of close to 1600 mothers," she said, "and are very grateful to the whole-hearted support of Orinda's families."

In the membership drive, pencils were awarded to pupils whose classes, through the sixth grade, reported 100 per cent mothers' memberships.

The pencils were contributed by Mrs. Jack Guerin, whose husband is an employee of the Eberhard Faber Pencil Company, which donated the prizes.

Seventh and eighth grade classes with a perfect membership record will receive phonograph records as prizes.

Alan H. Burke Gets Sales Assignment

After having completed a three week sales training school, Alan H. Burke, 356 Glorietta Boulevard, Orinda, has been assigned as a sales representative of the Williamson-Dickie Manufacturing Company.

Burke has been assigned to the Sacramento sales territory.

WC Sheriffs Aid FBI in Capture

The FBI joined hands with the Walnut Creek sheriff's substation yesterday morning to arrest an Army veteran of the Korean war on a federal warrant as a parole violator in an Orinda home.

Arrested at 4 Mira Monte Road was Earl Harrison Miller, 41, who had been sought by the FBI since issuance of the warrant on October 18 at Washington, D. C.

According to San Francisco Special Agent in Charge Harvey G. Foster, FBI Agent D. L. Eskridge and Inspector Norman Wilson of the sheriff's substation made the arrest.

The warrant charges Miller with loss of contact and issuance of worthless checks; Foster said.

After his service in Korea, Miller had spent about a year in a federal penitentiary. Wilson said that for the past six months Miller has been "wandering around Oakland."

Foster said Miller was lodged in the Contra Costa County jail at Martinez, awaiting return to a federal prison.

Orinda School Board Approves Expansion Moves

School expansion funds highlighted the meeting Monday of the Orinda School District trustees, and the board approved two measures to further the expansion program.

The first was an agreement with Utah Construction Company for a $70,000 purchase of 14 acres of land for a future park site. The sale is currently being processed by the District Attorney.

LOCATED NORTH of Ranchitos de Moraga between Moraga Highway and Ivy Drive, the parcel is the first portion of 22.8 acres of the site the district will eventually purchase.

In order to help finance other land purchases and construction of additions to the Pine Grove School, the trustees also passed a resolution to ask the Board of Supervisors to sell $180,000 of school bonds.

This is the final portion of $750,000 in bonds sold since a bond issue was approved by the voters in 1954.

In other business, Superintendent Joseph L. Sheaff reported that some 88 per cent of the district pupils' parents favored evacuation of their children in case of a civil defense emergency.

THE PARENTS' response was to a questionnaire, sent out by school districts in the area, asking whether they preferred to have children evacuated by the district or sent home in the event of an emergency.

Since the response was so overwhelmingly in favor of evacuation, tion, Sheaff said, all children in the district would be evacuated according to plan.

The superintendent said that 2188 out of a possible 2400 had answered the questionnaire.

RECREATION, for adults as well as pupils, was also a consideration as the board approved an outline by Frank Isola, recreational director of the district for an expanded recreation program.

The program, encompassing everyone in the district, would expand the use of school facilities for the community.

School libraries in the district show deficiencies, the board learned from district librarian Alice Frederick, but each school's improving.

Citing the Orinda and Glorietta school libraries as the best in the district, Mrs. Frederick said that district support and funds from the Orinda Mothers Club were increasing the stock of books and improving facilities.

Following the report, the board thanked the librarian for her efforts and the Mothers Club for its contributions.

Peace, Prosperity and A Little Planning Too...

By BILL HAYWARD

WALNUT CREEK PLANNERS . . . Frankly, I'm disappointed in the Walnut Creek Planning Commission . . . in my opinion they were the last outpost of Good and Sensible Planners in dear old W.C. area.

They, just like the county planners, bowed to the PETITIONS AND PROTESTS last Wednesday night . . . as the application of the Walnut Creek Sportsmen's Club turned down COLD AS A CLAM.

Pete Howard speaking for neighbors on the north side of Ygnacio and the Walnut Blvd. Improvement Association representative also yaking to keep the area in question zoned residential. Both forget that over 10,000 cars per day pass through this little cowpath, or over this narrow Indian trail if you wish.

Actually, it's only a matter of time when this new Ygnacio Valley Bypass will open traffic all the way from Oakland Boulevard with an increasing flow of cars, trucks and hazards.

WALNUT CREEK is busting out all over . . . as anyone can see. Now is the time to PLAN. Yes, PLAN an orderly pattern of progress out on this very important artery . . . a traffic stem that will carry over twice the traffic, as the BIG FLAT VALLEY TO THE EAST BEGINS TO GROW. . . . HOW LONG DO WE HAVE TO WATCH PROTESTS AND PETITIONS TAKE PRECEDENCE OVER PROGRESS AND PLANNING????

Good planning could make this the beauty spot of the eastern entrance to Walnut Creek!

LAFAYETTE SCENE . . . The F. W. MAISEL BUILDING just east of the Lafayette Legion Hall is fast nearing completion. We have been told that F. W. M. has personally inspected each timber, each rafter, each pipe and conduit, let alone the trim and fixtures and paint as they, each according to plan, fall into place.

Talk about supervision . . . nothing is better than top BRASS watching and waiting for the kettle to boil. We in the Real Estate Industry are looking forward to this edifice being ready to open by or before the Christmas season. Ride herd, Podner, RIDE HERD.

NORTH MAIN STREET AUTOMOBILE SET . . . Lucas Motors new building program dampened by the rain . . . wet hod-carriers can stop any outdoor construction . . . especially if it's outside. North Main sells Ford, Chevrolet, Volkswagon, plus the Lucas family of Plymouth and DeSoto.

BUSINESS BAROMETER . . . Postal receipts through the Walnut Creek post office are as follows: July 28-August 24 . . . $28,535.64; August 25-September 22 . . . $27,360.83; September 22-October 19 . . . $32,608.71. This adds up to a whopping $114,190.92. Incidentally, this is an increase of a sizeable amount over the totals for the same period of last year . . . $97,624.72.

PLEASANT HILL PROSPERITY . . . Marshall and McKinley have a new development in FOOTHILL PARK, a 20-lot subdivision north of Geary Road near Diablo View Circle. The Pioneer Realtors are at it again.

Conservation to Be Hilltop Topic

A talk on the importance of conserving natural resources will highlight the meeting of the Hilltop Garden Club next Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Clifford Davey, 31 Las Vegas Road, Orinda.

With all members and their husbands invited to attend, Mrs. Basil Winslow, conservation chairman of associated Garden Clubs, will speak on "Taking Care of Natural Resources to Insure the Future."

Another demonstration of the need for conservation will be given in the movie, "It's Up to You," which will be shown at the meeting by Jay Cortes of the county's Citizens Park Council.

Refreshments will be served following the program.

Sun Classified ads appear in 5 papers for one bargain price.

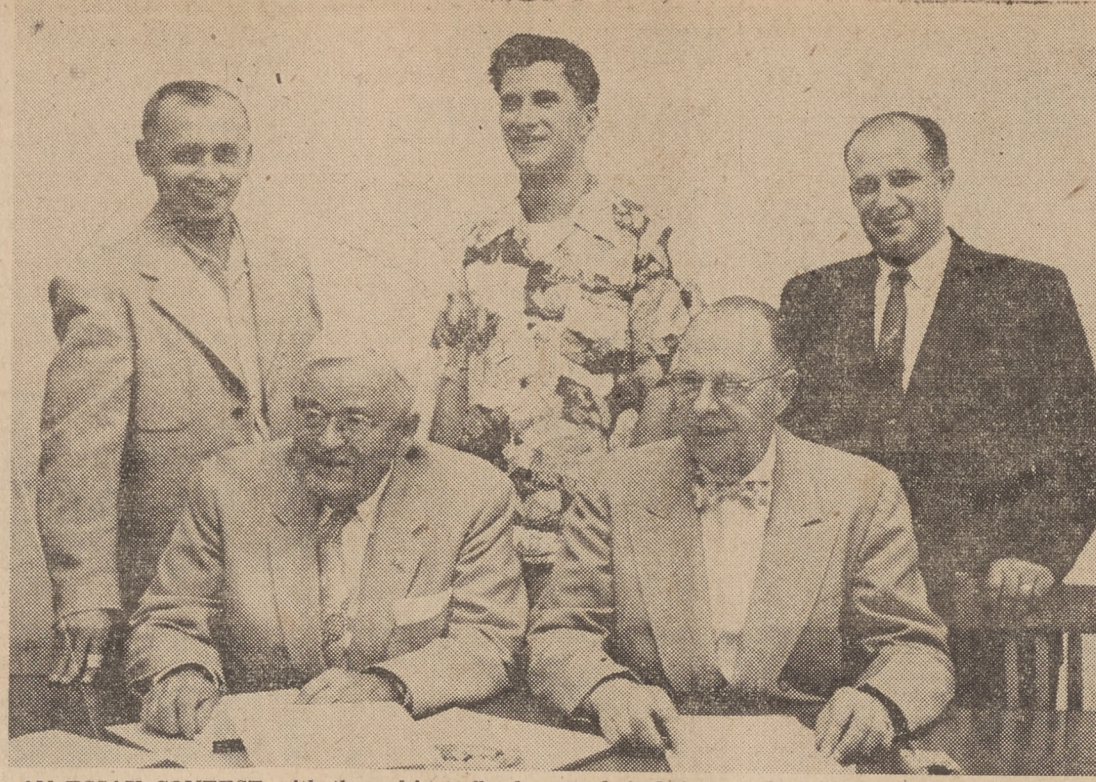

Local University Women to Meet

Two section meetings of the Orinda branch of the American Association of University Women have been scheduled for next week.

Next Tuesday at 8 p.m., Dr. Philip Lambert, director of curriculum for the Orinda Union School District, will speak at the contemporary problems group meeting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Roberts, 40 Roberts Road, Orinda.

Members and their husbands are invited to attend. The Art section will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Carl Gravelle, 42 Irving Lane, with a demonstration of new do-it-yourself decorative ideas for Christmas.

This will be given by Mrs. J. L. Chapple and Mrs. J. L. Gilmore Thursday at 1 p.m.

AN ESSAY CONTEST with the subject, flood control, is being conducted among high school students by the Citizens' Committee for Flood Control. They include, left to right, Richard Mitchell, Stephen Johnson, Frank Hanrahan, Chairman Bryan Shary and Larry Cordeiro, executive committee members.

Alumni Group Rebekah Lodge Being Formed In Walnut Creek

A new Rebekah Lodge is being organized in Walnut Creek.

An invitation was extended to persons interested in becoming charter members, according to Evalina Therklidsen of Orinda, CL 4-2145.

In Lafayette and Walnut Creek area Kay Johnson, YE 5-1421, has information. The next meeting is to be held at Marie Graham's home on Cherry Lane, Walnut Creek. The date is not set.

The area of Walnut Creek and vicinity has grown so rapidly that another Rebekah Lodge is needed, said leaders.

'Holidays' to Have Pianist, Also Harpist

Mrs. Albert B. Marshall, harpist, and Mrs. Charles B. Huestis, pianist, will furnish music for the Alamo Mothers Club "Heavenly Holidays" Luncheon and Fashion Show Wednesday at the Diablo Country Club.

Mrs. Marshall was a member of the Los Angeles Women's Symphony and of the San Gabriel Symphony.

Mrs. Huestis majored in music at the University of Washington and studied organ in southern California. She has played the organ and piano in several Bay Area churches.

At present she is pianist for the San Ramon Valley Congregational Church.

The Master of Ceremonies will be William Sawyer of Angela Avenue. Those who know him say you have a treat in store for you.

Tickets are available from Mrs. Willard Renhomer, YE 7-2120, or Mrs. A. C. Peays, YE 7-4229.

Camera Club Contest Will Be Wednesday

Contra Costa Camera Club's Black and White Division will hold its monthly competition Wednesday night at Las Lomas High School, Room 209, at 8 o'clock.

Charles Evans is chairman in charge of program. November 21 is Project Night. Charles H. McGill of Concord is scheduled to talk on "Composition of Art."

He is a teacher, writer and artist and will display some of his pictures.

Those interested in photography, whether it be black and white or color slides, are invited to attend any second, third or fourth Wednesday night at Las Lomas High School, Room 209, at 8 o'clock.

SERVE COMMUNITY Last year approximately 175 organizations utilized the facilities of the Acalanes High School District for community activities.

Sale to Benefit Jewish Center

St. George Hall in Oakland is the "market" today of the final day of the fourth annual Rummage Sale of the League of Jewish Women.

Proceeds of the sale, which will be held from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., will be used for further improvement of the Jewish Community Center Building in Lafayette.

Chairman of the sale is Mrs. Harold Bloom of Lafayette, according to Mrs. Sari Lois Mattal, Ways and Means chairman of the league.

Bloom is assisted by members of the organization from many local communities.

Sorority Studies Earn $100 Check

Alpha Gamma Delta sorority was honored recently at the Panhellenic Scholarship tea in Berkeley with a $100 check for showing the most improvement in scholarship among the sororities.

The next meeting of the Diablo Valley Alumnae of Alpha Gamma Delta will be held Monday at 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Gerald V. Ball, 307 Roberta Avenue, Pleasant Hill.

Mrs. Robert Schroder of Walnut Creek and Mrs. Henry M. Ferree of Lafayette will be co-hostesses for the evening.

This will be another work meeting to prepare for the coming bazaar.

Homecoming to Aid Coiffures

Hair-stylists concious local women will welcome the news that Mrs. Fred Bentley, after an absence of 15 months, has returned to the area and has resumed work as a coiffure stylist.

Mrs. Bentley is now employed by the Country Hairdressers of Orinda, where she is utilizing her hairdressing experience.

Mrs. Bentley, known to Lafayette residents through her association with Carmen's Beauty Shop, which is no longer in operation, left this area when her husband, Fred, was transferred from the Oakland Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company office.

Vikings Beat Hartnell for Fifth Victory

East Contra Costa Junior College Vikings chalked up their fifth win of the season Saturday, beating Hartnell College, 13-6.

All the scoring was in the second quarter.

Quarterback Jim Rose passed 59 yards to Grover Garvin, left halfback, for the first score.

Hartnell then tallied when halfback Daryl Goodwin ran six yards, climaxing a 35-yard push.

Fullback Jim Tackitt plunged over the line for six yards and the second Viking touchdown not long after, and the try for extra point was good.

Standouts among the winners were Bill Parnell, Ray Bartels, Harry Miller, Laird Eckmeyer, Art Lawrence, Garvin, Tackitt, McMillan, Rose and Roy Johnson.

Contra Costa got 9 first downs, to Hartnell's 12.

The victors have two wins, no losses and one tie in the Coast Conference, and five wins, one loss and one tie in all games.

San Jose Junior College leads the league, with Menlo Junior College second.

Queens Bench Plans Dinner For Barristers

The Queen's Bench, an association of women lawyers of the Bay Area, is planning an annual dinner Thursday honoring the superior and municipal court judges of Alameda, Contra Costa and San Francisco Counties.

Betsy Fitzgerald Rahn and Grace Barbee are in charge. Evelyn Follett is president of the organization.

The dinner will be held Thursday evening at the Hotel Leamington, Oakland.

The well-known trial attorney Melvin M. Belli will be the speaker.

The Richmond Community Theatre will present scenes from Noel Coward's "Private Lives." The roles will be filled by Karen Moore, John B. Moore, Dirk Harvey and Sherry Sailer. Selections by "The Uncalled Four," a popular East Bay Barbershop Quartet, will conclude the program.

Gladys Schwatka of Orinda is on the Arrangements Committee for the dinner.

Other Queen's Bench members in the Central Contra Costa area include Barbara Backer of Concord, Lois Bargmann of Lafayette, Betty Burch of Happy Valley, and Emerald Skinner Smith of Orinda.

DAY OF PROGRESS

November 10, 1883, was a day which marked great progress in this area. A telephone was ordered placed in the sheriff's office by the Board of Supervisors or the use of the county.

On that day, the Walnut Creek Hook and Ladder Company announced possession of "a fine cart, fully equipped."

An Urgent Need! Better Food Check

"Contra Costa County is the worst in the entire Bay Area when it comes to the inspection of food handling establishments."

These are the words of our County Health Officer, Dr. Henrik Blum.

Obviously this condition does not exist because the health department is not aware of it, but because there is nothing it can do about it with the present facilities.

What does this situation mean to us, as homeowners and residents of the county?

It means that a county health inspector looks over a restaurant about once a year under the present circumstances, and that this is not frequent enough to insure sanitary conditions in our public eating places.

This in turn means that such communicable diseases as tuberculosis, flu, polio and others have more chance to enter our lives.

What can be done about the situation?

Dr. Blum suggested four alternatives, any of which would go far toward alleviating the situation. They are:

1. The county could approve salaries of new inspectors in the annual budget.

2. An annual fee might be charged each market, restaurant and food manufacturer, uniform for all, amounting to perhaps $20. Or, a fee might be charged according to the size of the establishment, cubic footage, or number of seats.

3. A fee could be charged only to establishments which actually serve food, omitting markets.

4. Annual contribution might be sought from the cities.

Dr. Blum pointed out to a meeting of city managers recently that "The way out seems to be to allow the health department more power to do its job, and that means more people and stronger enforcement laws."

Dr. Blum is a physician, and it is his job to see that the county remains a healthy place in which to live. Surely we would not tamper with our own health in our own homes.

Does it not seem rather silly, then, to question his ability and reasoning when he tells us of unsanitary conditions in our communities?

In addition to making us aware of the problems, he has offered several alternatives as possible solutions.

In all probability, the decision will rest with the County Board of Supervisors. We urge them to take action immediately.

This is not a political issue . . . it is a health issue. There can be no temporizing when illness or possible death are involved.

What They Say . . 'Big Game' Excitement

Each autumn, as the gridiron season nears its climax, football fanaticism in the local area rises to fever pitch.

What's the cause of all the excitement? It's the "Big Game," that annual struggle between the young heroes of the University of California and their staunch Stanford rivals.

THIS ENCOUNTER, which will be played this year on November 24 in the Cal arena, puts at stake the glory of Alma Mater for thousands of local residents.

No matter how dismal the record, a team's victory in the "Big Game" means a successful season, at least as far as alumni and other fans are concerned.

Other locals, who haven't caught the football bug or have no sentiments for either school, simply won't acquiesce to the growing excitement.

YOUR ROVING Reporter this week decided to find out just how far-reaching is the "Big Game" tension.

Mrs. Bertram Bennett, 419 Castello Road, Lafayette, has lost some of her enthusiasm for the grid sport on the whole, but said, "I kind of hope Cal wins the 'Big Game.'"

Thoroughly indoctrinated in football by six griddier brothers, Mrs. Bertram favors Cal because one of them played there.

AS FAR AS Mrs. R. B. Salvars, 129 Meadow Road, Orinda, is concerned, the "Big Game" might be interesting, but no more so than most other games. In other words, she said, "I just don't have any particular interest in this game."

She enjoys going to football games, she disclosed, "but my husband is the real fan."

JUST THE OPPOSITE is true for Mrs. H. N. Breckling, 765 Moraga Road, Lafayette, who doesn't usually care too much for football.

But come "Big Game" time, she said, "and I take a great interest." Which way does her interest lean? "I hope Cal wins," she confided.

Mrs. C. J. Hegerle, of 393 Minor Road, Orinda, has "always taken an interest in the game," but this year will be rooting for the Bears especially hard.

HER SON, Peter, is now a junior on the Berkeley campus. Mrs. E. L. Wentworth, 2667 Nogales Avenue, Walnut Creek said, "We really are not interested in football at present. We are from the east coast and have just been in this area a few months. We really are more interested in eastern league competition."

JOHN TEIRMONT, 19 Lark Place, Pleasant Hill, answered, "I have two sons playing football in the army in Texas so I'm interested in college football and very interested in the California-Stanford game. We have tickets for the contest so instead of taking my wife I'm taking my youngest son, Bill who will be in high school next year."

Mrs. Marchescha Tollinada, 18 Lomas Circle, Walnut Creek, does not like football. She said, "I really don't like football so I don't take much interest in high school or college games. I think that it is too rough for high school boys to be playing and men in college should have better sense than trying to hurt one another."

John Major, 1931 Ardith Drive, Pleasant Hill, said "I'm not interested this year at all. Neither club has done too much this year and I don't think I'd go to the game even if I had passes. I'm a Notre Dame fan and since the year has been so bad back there, I'm not too interested in other teams."

New York Girl to Play Piano at Concert Monday

Natalie Ryshna, brilliant young American pianist, will appear Monday at the Acalanes High School Auditorium in the first concert of the 1956-57 season sponsored by the Acalanes Community Concert Association.

The concert will begin at 8:15 p.m. It is open to members of the association only.

Miss Ryshna made her debut at Town Hall three seasons ago, and last April she gave her second New York recital which gained the unanimous applause of the metropolitan music critics.

The talented young woman was born in Philadelphia of Polish-Ukrainian American parents. She began to study the piano at the age of seven.

When Natalie was 12 years old, she was heard by Allison R. Drake, dean of the Philadelphia Conservatory of Music. He recognized her natural talents and began to discipline her for a serious musical career.

By the time she had finished high school she had won a scholarship with the Philadelphia Conservatory and the Juilliard School.

Miss Ryshna is a tall, slender, green-eyed blonde who once considered dancing as a career. She is interested in people and in reading, especially politics and world history.

She lives in her own apartment in New York City and indulges in art, writing and Hi-Fi recordings. And of course, she is interested in clothes.

For those readers who are not members of the Concert Association and would like to become members, they may call Mrs. Gray, YE 4-2537.

Civil Defense Class Changes Schedule

The fourth and final meeting of the Basic Civil Defense class, being held at Acalanes High School, will meet next Monday from 7:30 to 9:30, instead of on November 19 as previously scheduled.

This was announced this week by William W. Ward, director of the Contra Costa office of Civil Defense and Disaster.

Letters to The Editor

Dear Editor:

I would like to tell you how much I personally appreciate the efforts of your newspaper in publicizing school events and information about our high school curriculum.

The faculty and administration at Las Lomas High School have worked hard to provide a level of instruction which is equal to the very best in the nation, and we realize that it is through efforts like yours that spreads information about our work.

Again, many thanks for your thoughtfulness.

Very sincerely yours,
Leland S. Russell, principal
Las Lomas High School

THANKS

Dear Editor:

We of Central Contra Costa County Council of Churches would like to thank you for your cooperation and publicity in helping to make the Church World Service Halloween Program a huge success.

General Chairman
Central Contra Costa County Council of Churches

Relief Asked for Hungry Victims Of Russ Attack

The newly formed United Hungarian Relief Committee, representing all Bay Area Hungarian organizations, is appealing for help to assist refugees of the Soviet attack on Hungary.

John Sallo, chairman, said the group's immediate goal is to raise money for refugees and make arrangements to ship clothing, drugs and other supplies.

Contributions can be mailed to P.O. Box 3337, Rincon Annex, San Francisco.

For pick-up in the local area, Mrs. Andor Polgar, 325 Glorietta Blvd., Orinda, CL 4-5061, may be contacted.

Polgar is executive vice-chairman of UHRC.

Civil Defense Units Take Part In Exercise

Civil Defense units in Contra Costa County took part in "Operation Quiver" held yesterday in 16 California counties.

The operation was conducted on the assumption that an earthquake had shaken the coastal areas.

An industrial control center was put into operation in the auditorium of the County Administration Building in Martinez.

Rehearsed were delegation of responsibilities contacting help from the outside and administration. Conferences with question and answer periods were held.

William Ward, county director of Civil Defense, told volunteers: "Nobody knows for sure whether we will ever be subjected to a t a c k, but everybody knows for sure that sooner or later we definitely will be involved in the kind of disasters which have occurred since the beginning of time—earthquakes, floods and fires."

Under The Sun

By Herman Silverman

Confessions of an editor

The election is over—thank gosh! Other staff members and I have had a mighty rough week—radio broadcast, result tabulation, additional coverage. We're not complaining. It's been fun.

However, the weeks and months before the election are not fun because of the tremendous pressure from candidates, parties, groups. But I've already talked about that.

This week I have thought a lot about the role of a newspaper before an election. The question I asked myself is: Did the Sun do a good job in helping to inform you, the voter?

What did we do?

The Sun this year sponsored three candidates-town hall meetings.

We asked pertinent questions of the candidates and printed their answers side by side.

The Sun discussed the various propositions and issues (district formation, bond issues) and published recommendations.

A Battle Page each week was open to the candidates to state their views, along with other political news.

Recommendations on the propositions by influential organizations were printed.

This is in addition to the regular run of "local political news"—meetings, special events, etc.

We have been pleased by the response to this over-all program. Other editors have told us that The Sun does more in this field than almost any other weekly paper.

Is it enough?

But this week I felt that something was missing. We are not doing enough. The issues, candidates, the background are often complicated. Mr. and Mrs. Voter have a difficult time deciding and perhaps we are missing the boat somewhere.

I think I know what it is.

The Sun attempts to be as impartial as is possible. True, we fail now and then. Certainly, the Republicans and Democrats alike are constantly unhappy with us. Nevertheless, we are a non-partisan, independent newspaper attempting to be fair to both sides. We are particularly watchful in the races for the various offices.

Attempting to be so careful, I think we often lean over backwards and fail to present the news. Thus, the reader is being deprived of pertinent information that may have a bearing on his vote.

Too close to the race?

The race for supervisor, district 2, is an example. We were so close to this campaign between Wallace and Nielsen that we printed only material submitted by each candidate. We even carried this a step further. Last week Mel Nielsen's office hadn't turned in a story, so we called him and he rushed one to us.

On the other hand, Nielsen was pictured in several news (not political) shots and we felt that Wallace was due at least one news shot.

But we didn't print speculative stories telling the progress of the campaign. We wouldn't print the charges by Wallace supporters that there was an organized campaign tearing down his signs. Ditto—Nielsen's forces showed us signs that were mutilated. We didn't discuss the large amounts of money spent—by both sides.

We were being "unbiased." Consequently, a lot of voters did not know much about this race. Numerous friends, usually well informed, started asking me questions about the race the past two weeks. I was surprised at their ignorance.

Do you have the answer?

I don't think we did as good a job as we should because of the "unbiased policy." And at this moment I don't know what the answer is.

We do not endorse candidates "unless a dangerous situation arises." Many papers do. Perhaps we should.

I never questioned for a minute that Don Doyle was better qualified than Russel Koch for the Assembly. Or that John Baldwin was better qualified than Bob Quinney. Perhaps we should have endorsed them.

I will appreciate any comment you have on this. Please let me hear from you.

Sororities Unite; Joint Meet Planned

An invitation has been extended to alumnae of Delta Sigma Epsilon to join with Mt. Diablo alumnae of Delta Zeta at a meeting Wednesday evening, at 8 in the home of Mrs. John Riner, 868 Moraga Road, Lafayette.

The union of the two national sororities was affected August 21. Retained was the name of Delta Zeta. It was the larger group, with 82 college chapters.

Delta Sigma Epsilon was the second largest and second oldest of the national teacher's college sororities with 46 college chapters. The union makes Delta Zeta one of the largest national sororities with 118 college chapters.

As a result of the union, the number of collegiate chapters in California has been increased to seven. There were two college chapters of Delta Sigma Epsilon at Chico State College and the University of California at Santa Barbara.

Chapters of Delta Zeta existing in the state before the union were at University of California, San Jose State, U.C.L.A., San Diego State and Long Beach State.

At the meeting, members will hold a "Home-made" auction to raise money for Delta Zeta Philanthropies. Persons wishing to attend may contact Mrs. Riner at AT 3-3628.

Sally Gruenhagen Wed in Mission Carmel Ceremony

Under an altar sheathed in white mums in the historical Mission Carmel in Carmel, Calif., Sally Ann Gruenhagen of Orinda became the bride of James H. Quinn Jr. of Oakland on October 27.

The new Mrs. Quinn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Gruenhagen of 2 Oriole Road, Orinda. Her engagement to Quinn was announced to the couple's immediate families last August.

The bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Quinn, has attended St. Mary's College and the University of California. Sally was a student at the College of the Pacific.

As she walked toward the flowered altar, escorted by her father, the bride wore a light blue suit with navy blue accessories. In her arms was a bouquet of white orchids which, along with other flowers at the wedding, were grown by her aunt in Hawaii.

Attending Sally as maid of honor in the informal ceremony, was her cousin, Miss Judie Miller of Auburn, Calif.

Serving his brother as best man was John F. Quinn of Oakland. Norm Barney of Piedmont attended as an usher.

Following a reception in the Fiesta Room of Casa Munras in Monterey, the couple remained in Monterey for their honeymoon.

They are now at home in Carmel.

MARRIED October 27 at Mission Carmel were Sally Anne Gruenhagen and James H. Quinn Jr. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Gruenhagen of 2 Oriole Road, Orinda. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Quinn of Oakland.—Albert "Kay" Harris photo

Kappa Alums to Hear Review of Book on France

A well-known lecturer and linguist will highlight the meeting next Tuesday at 12:30 p.m. of the East Bay Alumnae Association of Kappa Kappa Gamma at the Orinda Country Club.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. John K. Maxwell, who will review the book, "One Touch of France," by Major A. Hamilton Gibbs.

Mrs. Maxwell, a native of France, will be dealing with a familiar subject. After coming to the University of California to study in 1915, she returned to her native land two years later as an interpreter for the American Army.

Presiding over the meeting will be Mrs. Arthur C. Scheu of Lafayette, president of the association.

Mrs. C. J. Van Til, chairman of the event, invites all new Kappas in the area to attend. Reservations may be made with Mrs. George Howes, HU 3-0623.

Heidi to Hear Report of Party

President Mrs. Gilbert Myers will preside over the next meeting of the Heidi chapter of the Children's Home Society next Tuesday.

The group will meet at 12:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. William P. Rebscher, 3332 Victoria Avenue, Lafayette.

Hostesses will be Mesdames John D. Bauer, Albert Alexander and Allen Seibert.

Members will hear a report on the success of their "Venetian Ventures" fashion show and luncheon of October 18. Proceeds of this affair will go to the Children's Home Society to further its adoptive program.

Local Branch Prepares for Exhibit Tea

Early-bird Christmas shoppers will find a wide variety of distinctive gift items for sale at the annual Exhibit Tea of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay to be held at the Hotel Claremont on Wednesday.

Stuffed animals, dancing dolls, cocktail napkins, velvet evening bags and delicious food specialties, all prepared by the members of the Branches, are to be offered from booths staffed by Branch members.

Walnut Branch members have been busy since early summer months making dainty ballerina skirts, glittering trim for the Christmas tree, on gift wrappings, curtain tie-backs or birthday cakes.

The local Branch will also present exquisite hand-painted Christmas ornaments.

Mrs. Gus Spilker and Mrs. A. M. Madison are co-chairmen of the Walnut Exhibit Tea committee with Mrs. Donald Kientz assisting.

Guests may attend the tea between 11 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Retired Doctor Marries Omahan

Dr. L. A. DeLanney of 1031 Hacienda Drive, Walnut Creek, was married October 27 in Martinez to Mrs. Floy Brannum Neese of Omaha.

The ceremonies took place at the court house. The couple will make their home at the Hacienda residence in Walnut Creek. Dr. DeLanney became a resident of the area three years ago when he retired from his practice in Omaha.

Orinda Pair Set Holiday Nuptial Date

A December 28 ceremony in St. Stephen's Church in Orinda will culminate the romance of two young Orindians.

That's the date set for the exchange of vows of Judy Dunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dunn, 4 Charles Hill Road, and Harvey H. Lowthian Jr., the son of the senior Harvey Lowthians, 5 Overhill Court.

Following the rites, a reception will be held for the couple at the Orinda Country Club.

Matron of honor will be Judy's sister-in-law, Mrs. Roger Dunn of Long Beach.

In the roles of bridesmaids will be Mrs. Gerald Rule of Sacramento, Mrs. Albert Evans, Linda St. Hill and Betsy Morphet, a Delta Gamma sorority sister from the University of Oregon.

Phil Lowthian will serve his brother as best man. Ushering will be Ens. Roger Dunn, Jack Stoffel, Timothy Layden and Bob Staff.

Planning Dance

Young ladies from Walnut Creek and Alamo will assist on the Decor-Publicity Committee for an informal dance to be given November 17, by sophomore women at the College of Holy Names, Oakland.

They are Cathy Laub, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Laub of 303 Las Lomas Way, Walnut Creek, and Jane Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Brown, Austin Lane, Alamo.

Ardeth Nave Is Married to Ray Mason

Making their home in Pacific Beach, San Diego, where the groom is stationed in the Navy, are Mr. and Mrs. R. Raymond Mason whose marriage was a recent event in Walnut Creek. She is the former Ardeth Nave, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nave.

Both Mrs. Mason and her husband, son of the C. L. Masons of Pollack Pines, Calif., were graduates of San Jose State College.

The Reverend David Beamer, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Walnut Creek, solemnized the ceremony in the Nave garden before 200 guests.

The altar in front of a natural background of trees was flanked with tall white candelabra and white chrysanthemums. Chinese lanterns and Hawaiian torches lighted the garden.

Mrs. Mason was given in marriage by her father. She was attended by Sally Hoffman, a college classmate of Oakdale and Judy Brady, her cousin of Menlo Park.

Henry Ramp of San Jose, a Theta Chi fraternity brother, served as best man. The ushers were the bride's brother, Paul Nave Jr., and Peter MacVean of Walnut Creek.

The bride wore a ballerina length white peau de soie gown, with a finger tip veil and carried a white bible with a spray of lilies of the valley. Her attendants were dressed in gold and carried a spray of chrysanthemums in fall colors.

Suburban Club Plans Lafayette Turkey Whist

The Lafayette Suburban Club will hold a Turkey Whist Party in the Veteran's Memorial Building in Lafayette on Saturday, November 17, at 8 o'clock.

The Bridge Section, which will sponsor the party, has invited the Lafayette Suburban Juniors and guests to try their luck at winning one of the several turkeys which will be awarded high scoring guests.

Mrs. Charles E. Kennett, Bridge Section chairman, is in charge of arrangements, with Mrs. Sal Vallelunga as procurement chairman and Mrs. Archie Brock planning the refreshments.

The Bridge Section holds classes on the first Wednesday of each month at 8 o'clock at the Las Trampas home of Mrs. Orville Jones, with Mrs. Kennett in charge.

Beginning players have dessert bridge during the afternoon. Mrs. Andrew Glimme is the chairman for this group.

Toy Workshop To Aid School

Diablo Valley Alumnae of Alpha Chi Omega will hold another toy workshop next Thursday at the home of Mrs. Gilbert Haley, 3496 School Street, Lafayette, at 8 p.m.

Simple toys and therapy equipment will be started for the children of Shadelands School.

The program this season is being headed by Mrs. G. Wayne Bentley of Orinda.

Sorority Holds 'River Rat Ramble'

Young Women from Walnut Creek who are members of Alpha Xi Delta, University of California, Berkeley, attended a "River Rat Ramble" dance last Friday, they announced.

Big Dance To Precede 'Big Game'

Moraga Meadows Association has chosen as its annual social event for 1956 a pre-"Big Game" dance, to be held on Friday evening, November 23, at the American Legion Hall in Lafayette.

Dancing will be from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. to the music of Dick Dilline, popular local band leader.

These plans were announced during a recent meeting of the Association by the newly elected president, Vic Kingston.

Other officers elected to serve throughout 1957 are Vice-president Carl Pedersen, Secretary Betty Moore, Treasurer Bud Leiber and Director Gerald Trumbly.

All residents of the Moraga Meadows Area are invited to attend this non-profit-seeking social event, the purpose of which is to provide an evening of entertainment and reunion for all members and potential members of the Association.

Tickets will soon be on sale by volunteer neighborhood canvassers at a price of $2 per couple. Reservations can now be made by calling CL 4-3392 or CL 4-3214.

Sorority Moms To Plan Dinner

Plans for a family Christmas dinner will be made tomorrow by Mu Chapter of the Delta Zeta Mothers Club at a 1:30 p.m. meeting at the chapter house, 2728 Durant Avenue, Berkeley.

With President Mrs. M. L. Sealman presiding, guest speaker for the day will be Mrs. Wilma Mitchell, chairman of the Alumnae Advisory Board.

Hostesses will be Mrs. H. W. Read, chairman, Mrs. Donald Marshall, Mrs. T. M. Ringham and Mrs. E. J. Gillard.

Diablo Choral Plans December Festivities

The Diablo Valley Choral will hold its final luncheon and business meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. Charles Wright Wednesday.

Assisting will be Mesdames Roy Haight, V. E. Perry and J. Johnson.

Discussion of the annual Christmas party to be held December 8 will be the business of the day.

The Choral plans to present its Christmas program to the Alamo Women's Club December 14 and to Parks Air Force Hospital December 2.

New memberships singing for the first time with the group are Mesdames Ray Turner and C. C. Rich.

PH Couple Is Engaged

A Pleasant Hill couple, Miss Diane Tebaldi and Henry Traulsen, plan to be married next March.

Diana attended Pleasant Hill High School and is employed as a model.

Her future husband graduated from Diablo High School, served with the U.S. Army, and is employed by a chemical company in Pittsburg, California.

Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Tebaldi of 131 Maxine Drive, Pleasant Hill, and he is the son of Mrs. Viola Traulsen of 1300 Contra Costa Highway, Pleasant Hill.

Williams Travel

Mr. and Mrs. Van Williams of 1854 Newell Avenue, Walnut Creek, recently visited Disneyland in Southern California, with their children, Sharon and Jeff.

"VINTAGE FESTIVAL" at the Turf Club, Golden Gate Fields, will be a benefit party tomorrow to aid the Children's Hospital of the East Bay, given by the various branches of the hospital. Among those active in preparations are Mrs. Hugh Lenahan (left) of Lafayette, a member of Coral Branch, and Mrs. Robert Eschen of Orinda, a member of Cottonwood Branch.

Turf Club to Sparkle at Vintage Festival Tomorrow

Local branches of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay will join with their sister groups tomorrow to transform the Turf Club in Golden Gate Fields into a gigantic vineyard during the annual "Vintage Festival."

"Effervescing champagne glasses, giant-size, will add a sparkling touch to the 5 'til 8 p.m. party," according to Mrs. Luke Hamilton of Cedar Branch, chairman of the hospital benefit.

"The vintage atmosphere will be carried out in the refreshments which will include aperitif wines, breads and cheese," she added. Assisting Mrs. Hamilton with plans for the party are Mrs. Michael Ferrone of Orinda, a member of the Cottonwood Branch, and Mrs. Everett Bertillon of Cedar Branch.

More than 2,000 members and guests are anticipated at the gala event, with the beautifully redecorated Turf Club offering a spectacular view of the bay at sunset.

Coral Branch's Mrs. Hugh Lenahan of Lafayette is in charge of hostesses who will represent the 16 sponsoring branches, three members from each.

Also assisting with preparations is Mrs. Robert Eschen of Orinda, a member of the Cottonwood Branch.

Gifted Child Studied by AAUW Group

"The Gifted Child" was the subject of a report by Mrs. John Gilan at the recent meeting of the Education section of the Walnut Creek Branch, American Association of University Women.

This section is a study and action group. This year, in addition to schooling for the gifted child, it will do research on the California school textbook, school finance for non-industrial areas, the level system of child placement within a grade, and the enrichment of the child's experience through the complete school program.

Specific action will be taken on recommendations at the conclusion of the year's study according to Mrs. T. W. Marston, education chairman.

The Creative Writing Workshop of the Walnut Creek Branch will meet Wednesday at 1:30 at the home of its chairman, Mrs. E. D. Reichert, 1053 Laurel Drive, Lafayette.

Members will submit original work for discussion and study materials for the year will be explained.

Expert View On Clothes To be Given

Information on present day fabrics will be given by a panel of experts at the University of California's Clothing Information Day, to be held next Thursday at the Diablo Country Club.

The program for the all-day meeting starts at 9 a.m. It has been arranged by Home Advisor Mary R. Williams, and Clothing Specialists Ethelwyn Dodson and Frances Quinn of the University of California.

County-wide clothing committee members who have assisted include 4H Home Advisor Ann Pleasant; General Chairman Mrs. Leonard Seclaf, Walnut Creek; Mesdames Betty Fowler, Concord; H. C. Wiedemann, San Ramon; Delbert Starr, Pittsburg.

Working with Mrs. Seclaf are Mesdames V. R. Muth, Earl Nagel, Barney Wetzel, George Fox, Harvey Head, Ray S. Taylor, Fred Gates, Robert Seaton, R. O. Shoemaker, Francis Cline and Leslie Kerns.

Christmas Bazaar is Nov. 28

Ladies of four organizations will assist members of the Council for the Retarded, Inc., November 28, in a Christmas Bazaar at the Veterans Memorial Building in Walnut Creek.

The Kappa Tau Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will bake cakes and work in the booths. The Walnut Creek Suburbanettes will donate many gifts for selling purposes.

P.A.N. members will present needle-work articles, bake cakes, and will assist in the booths, while the Danville Junior Women's Club will take over the complete management and operation of a "Country Store", which will offer all kinds of home-made foods.

Gifts to be sold at the Bazaar include aprons of all descriptions, kitchen accessories, Christmas decorations and novelties, wood-craft items, children's clothing including pinafores, booties, slippers, jeweled and gilded articles, parcel-post packages, beautiful Christmas cards, and many other needle-work items.

There will also be tables set up for serving food. Children have not been overlooked and will have a special "fishing-pole" booth for their amusement.

Proceeds will go directly to the Council for the Retarded, East Contra Costa County, Inc., to help further their goals.

Former Lafayette Resident Will Soon be Bride

Ann Laws McAllister, the daughter of former Lafayette residents, has announced her engagement to Dr. Justin William Kohl, currently a resident in Ophthalmology at the University of California Medical Center.

The bride-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Summer Hatch McAllister, resided at 3344 Las Huertas Road, Lafayette, before moving to Denver, Colo.

A graduate of Acalanes High School and Mills College, Ann served her internship in nutrition at Peter Bent Brigham Hospital in Boston. She is currently affiliated with the American Dietetic Association.

The couple is planning a December 29 wedding in St. Stephen's Church in Orinda. They intend to reside in San Francisco.

Jewish Women Offer Modern Dance Classes

The League of Jewish Women is offering its members "a very exciting Workshop project," a series of modern dance classes conducted by Miss Linda Hickox, well-known Orinda dance instructor.

The classes, which started Tuesday, will be conducted every Tuesday from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. for the next two months, according to Workshop Chairman Mrs. Hal Roth of Lafayette.

The fee will be 50 cents per class.

Miss Hickox studied modern dance at Mills College and conducted modern and folk dance classes there. For several summers she was a teacher in the Lafayette Recreation Department.

Last year she taught modern dance at the Orinda Children's Art Center, and is now teaching at the Valley Art Center in Lafayette on Saturdays.

Mrs. Roth added that while it is not necessary to attend all of the classes, a member must sign up for at least four of the eight weeks.

She invites all those interested to contact her at YE 5-0198.

Hard Times Set By Xi Delta Tau

The members of Xi Delta Tau Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will hold their annual Hard Times Dance and party at the Sportsman Club in Walnut Creek tomorrow. The dance will start at 8 p.m.

The evening of fun will include juke box music and refreshments and the donations will be $1.00 per couple, before moving.

The chairman of the project is Mrs. Robert Asche and her committee includes Mrs. Norman Davidson, Mrs. Gene Pleau and Mrs. Opal Townsend, with other members participating.

All proceeds will be given to benefit Juvenile Hall in Martinez. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Frank Jolly, 790 Cumberland Drive, Pleasant Hill, Tuesday.

As EXCITING AS THE DANCE ITSELF... R & K's Flamenco striped print crepe with its wealth of color flowing from the high slit neck, bursting forth in a skirt kept buoyantly beautiful by its own net crinoline!

Board Compiling Annual List of School Supplies

Paper, pencils and the hundreds of other items required to run a school are being reviewed by the Contra Costa County Board of Education in its annual compilation of the Standard Supply List, the master list which makes volume buying and savings possible.

All elementary schools are required by state law to use the supplies thus designated by the county board. Other school districts may buy from the list.

Assisting the County Board of Education again are committees formed last year. Their continuation has been recommended by County Purchasing Agent Charles Hornback.

The list will be completed this month and distributed among the school districts to determine the volume necessary. Later, the board will call for bids.

Committees are as follows: General Purchasing, Dr. Charles Haworth, superintendent of Pittsburg Unified School District, chairman.

Standard Supplies, (it suggests additions or deletions), James L. Scott, principal of Knightsen School, chairman.

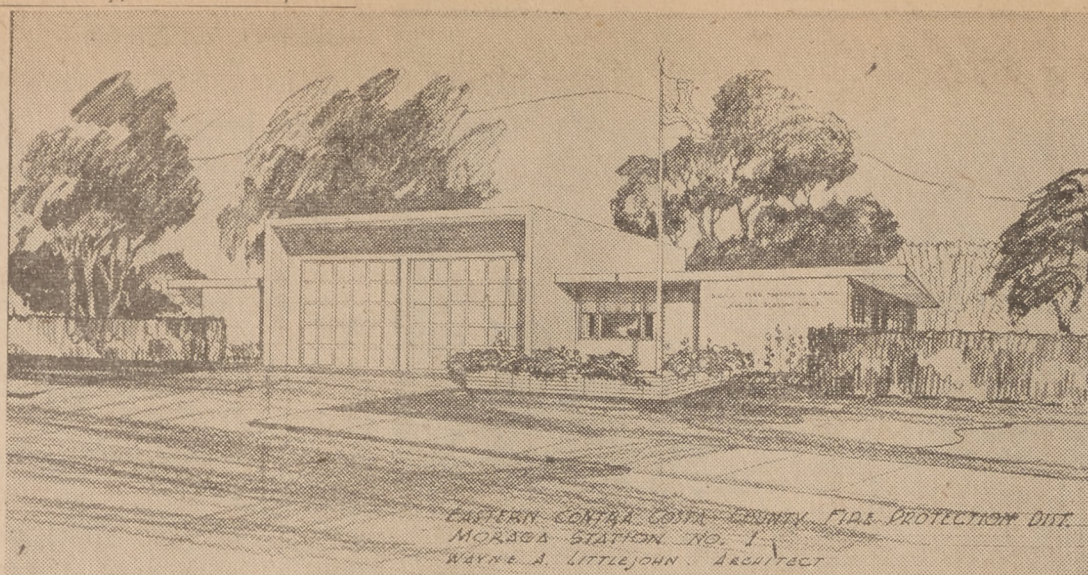

Specifications committee, (insures that items newly added to the Standard Supply List meet quality requirements), Chester Moore, director of purchasing for Richmond schools, chairman.

Testing, (checks both new brand names for quality and occasionally determines compliance with contract specifications), Mrs. Nelda Stoeckle, purchasing agent, Mt. Diablo Unified School District, chairman.

Chandler Young Will Address Scouter Dinner

Chandler P. Young, Lafayette, director of public relations for Kaiser Industrial Corporation, will be the speaker at the annual Meridian Boy Scout District potluck dinner for all scouts and their partners at 7:15 tonight at San Ramon High School, Danville.

Young is a veteran of nearly 10 years' service with various Kaiser companies and is a U.S. Navy veteran of World War II and the Korean conflict.

He is an active member of the San Francisco Press Club, Public Relations Society and the American Public Relations Association. He is a former president of the Northern California Industrial Editors Association. As a hobby, Young has written a novel, set in the War of 1812, and is currently at work on a new book dealing with early California history.

He is married and has two children; was born in Salt Lake City, Utah, and received his education at the University of California. Also on the program of the evening will be musical selections by the Centurians of North Richmond, a choral group of some 20 voices.

Newly elected officers of Meridian District to be installed include:

District chairman, Duncan Knudsen, Lafayette; vice-chairman, Thomas Mika, Orinda; district commissioner, Lester Lloyd, Lafayette.

Community vice-chairmen to be installed are William P. Gilmore, Orinda; Orville Sammann, Lafayette; Melvin Melnicoe, Walnut Creek; A. E. O'Nion, Danville; and Bruce Herbert, Pleasant Hill. The district will furnish beverage to the many sponsoring groups, who will sit at tables as units, furnishing their own food and table decorations.

To Hear Al Wren

A talk by Al C. Wren of the St. Paul Fire Insurance Company will highlight the program which follows the regular dinner meeting of the Contra Costa County Association of Insurance Agents Monday evening at the El Monte Restaurant in Concord.

Bill Hockins, program chairman, will introduce Wren whose subject will be "Insurance Packaging." This topic was heard by the Oakland Association of Insurance Agents where Wren spoke recently.

Essay Contests Precede Dec. 4 Flood Election

Young Citizens in Acalanes, Mount Diablo and San Ramon School Districts have been asked to express their views on flood control with the possibility of winning cash prizes.

Essay contests on "Flood Control," with first place prizes of $100, are open to all senior high school students in the Walnut Creek Watershed, it was announced by Bryan Shary, chairman of the Citizens Committee for Flood Control.

The contests run through November 26, and are divided into three groups — 12th grade students, 11th and 10th grade students and 9th grade students.

THEY PRECEDE an election on December 4, when voters in Flood Control Zone 3-B will pass on a proposed $10 million bond issue. It will finance a program to repair and improve the major channels in the area.

The 12th grade boy and girl whose essays are selected as best will receive $100 each. The student of the second best essay will receive $50.

First prize for the 11th and 10th grade students is $100 with $50 for second place.

ANOTHER $100 will be awarded to the writer of the best essay in the 9th grade division with $50 as the second place award. The contests are sponsored by the Citizens for Flood Control. Judges will be editors of local newspapers. The essays will be judged on content, organization of research material, originality of expression, correctness of grammar and spelling.

Students in the Acalanes, Mount Diablo and San Ramon School Districts seeking further information may inquire of their teachers or principals and the completed essays should be turned into the teachers or left at the principal's office with each student's name and address attached.

Shary said: "It is vital that everyone living in this area become aware of the necessity of a flood control program to protect the general welfare of the people and communities, encourage new residents in this rapidly growing area and save the taxpayer's money spent in repairs of streets and public services."

The winners of the contests

Football Goes Astray, Grid Guessers Find

Some 31 pigskin prognosticators discovered last Saturday that the football can take unpredictable bounces.

These gridiron guessers, entered in the Diamond K Supply Football Contest, all failed to predict enough winners in Saturday's games to get in on the merchandise prizes Diamond K is offering.

Had anyone guessed right on all 20 games listed on the Diamond K entry blank, printed in The Sun each week, he would have been awarded a $25 merchandise order at the supply store.

Selection of 19 winners would have won $15 in orders, while 18 correct selections would have meant $5 of Diamond K merchandise.

But alas, the only entrants within hailing distance of the prize were Alice Martinez, 1347 Pierson Way, Walnut Creek, and H. F. Saylor, 41 Newell Court, Walnut Creek. Both called 16 games on the nose, missing out by two.

Entry blanks should be clipped out of The Sun and submitted to Diamond K Supply, 3671 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette, before the games begin on Saturday morning.

will be announced November 30 and the prizes will be awarded by Congressman John Baldwin, Senator George Miller and Representative Don Doyle.

Now flowers speed cross-country by telephone. Many floral shops now offer a new service—Flowers by Telephone. When flowers are to be sent out of town, the florist calls the distant city and places the order before the customer leaves the shop. If the flowers asked for are out of stock, the customer is free to change his order, knowing his flowers will arrive on time. Florists who offer this new service display an emblem reading: "We speed flowers by telephone." It's another way telephone people—working with florists—make telephone service do a better job for you. AFS Goal--World Peace Instead of Casualties

By ARNE GROENNINGS

Publicity Chairman, Acalanes American Field Service Club. The other day I came across some literature about the American Field Service. What I read was news to me.

In World War II, 2000 AFS men, attached to the British Army and the Free French, carried more than 1,000,000 casualties from the battlefields. They worked closely with troops from France, the United Kingdom, Australia, New Zealand, India, South Africa, Canada, Poland, Greece, Palestine and Italy.

From this experience there grew in the AFS a strong belief in the common decency, courage and aspirations of men of good will throughout the freeworld, despite differences of language, custom and color.

With the war's end, the Field Service's director, Stephen Gallati, a New York stockbroker, organized AFS strength behind the development of a student exchange program.

"UNCLE STEVE," as he is known to thousands, maintained that in the hands of high school students lay the greatest potential existing for world peace.

The first AFS boys and girls landed in the United States in 1948 — 17 of them, representing four European countries.

Since then the project has expanded rapidly.

Local organizations and individuals raised the money: It costs an average of $650 to bring a boy or girl here for a year.

Families opening their homes to exchange students are not reimbursed for giving them bed and board.

On the other hand, medical expenses and pocket money for each student — $12 monthly — are taken care of by the American Field Service.

WE HAVE RAISED money this year to have three students at Acalanes. However, our job is not over by just getting them here.

Remember, they came to learn about our way of living, not just about one family, however wonderful their adopted "parents" are to them.

Perhaps you plan to take an exchange student on your next trip to Carmel, or to the snow this winter; but do you realize that to them it is interesting just to go shopping with you or sharing that "left-over dinner" or taking part in the different church services.

Better System Can Speed Building of Schools - Doyle

"California's school problems are the most colossal faced by any state in the nation and will require extensive legislation next spring," Assemblyman Donald D. Doyle told the Walnut Heights School PTA, November 1.

Doyle spoke on "State Influence on Primary Education." His talk was followed by a question and answer period and a coffee hour.

The Assemblyman was introduced by program chairman, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Banwell.

DOYLE, WHO IS chairman of the Assembly Committee on Education, told of progress being made toward solving school construction, teacher recruitment and financing problems.

"We must expand our concept of school problems to realize that California is fast becoming the most populous state in the nation," Doyle warned. "Every third minute of every day there is one more student for our schools to educate."

"This means that by 1960 we will have nearly 1 million more students in California — one new pupil for every two now in school."

Doyle emphasized that the state is a full partner in financing school construction and operation. He revealed that 47 per cent of school income is derived from state apportionments. "By 1960," Doyle declared, "operating costs for our schools will be more than $1 billion per year."

THAT IS MORE than half of this year's total state operating budget for all expenditures."

Doyle revealed that his committee is preparing legislation to speed up state aid for school building. He said these measures would transform the temporary and cumbersome state aid program into a permanent foundation program, administered by a single state agency.

The new building program, he revealed, could be administered similar to present ADA apportionments for school operation. A given amount of money per student could be made available to schools for housing.

DOYLE ALSO TOLD of measures to streamline present administrative procedures concerning construction projects. He estimated that simplified systems, suggested by his committee after a year's investigation of the construction problem, would cut several months from school planning and construction time.

"In Contra Costa County," Doyle declared, "these measures can mean the difference between timely construction of new schools, and continued double sessions."

A final aid to fast-growing areas will be legislation to permit districts to forecast building needs in five-year master plans, Doyle announced.

At present, schools cannot forecast construction needs for state-aid projects more than 2 years in advance.

Around Acalanes

By JERRY MORIARTY

The American Field Service Club is doing its utmost to help bring many more exchange students here next year. On Halloween night members of the club "trick or treated" for funds in order to help this cause. Their slogan was "Change for exchange."

"There was a lot of fun in their efforts, along with profits!" explained a member afterwards. Among participants in the drive were Pat Jackson, Paul Ogden, Carl Lincoln, Joan Nordstrom and Judy Henderson.

EVERYONE expressed their gay and victorious feelings the previous night at Liz Davis' open house. Students possessed these feelings following our successful win with Pacifica. The final score was 27 to 0 in favor of the Acalanes Dons.

Many gay Acalanes students frolicked at the open house. Some of those who were noticed were Carol Haines, Sharon Hayden, Kathy Pfeiffer, Rick Davis, Penny Marsh and Stuart Busby.

Halloween day the Spanish Honorary Society put on a scrumptious Cake Sale. President Bob Stueben commented afterwards, "The sale was a huge success,

GOP Women Stay in Politics

Although the elections are over, members of the Lafayette Republican Women's Club will keep their hands in politics next Thursday as they assemble to hear Assemblyman Caspar Weinberger of San Francisco.

The meeting, which will be combined with a tea social, will begin at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Miller Freeman, 4067 Happy Valley Road.

Weinberger, who is also a professor of law at Hastings and at Golden Gate College, has been unopposed for his assembly seat for the past two terms.

with everyone's wonderful help and cooperation.

On October 24 we had a wonderful assembly, at which the Corvets entertained us. There are six boys and a girl in the group. They all sang, and some played the saxophone, piano and drums for accompaniment.

THE GROUP has been together for just about four weeks, and seems to be excellent for this amount of time. The reason this group is so close to the school is because senior Ernie Petrucci is the drummer. Incidentally, he gave a terrific solo to end the program.

The Corvets, specializing in rhythm and blues, also have as a member Gary Williamson. Gary, a graduate of Acalanes in 1955, sang in many assemblies and school programs during his years at Acalanes.

LOS AMIGOS will soon be ready to sell their "publication," the Student Directory.

This book, having the names and addresses of Acalanes students in it, will aid everyone in sending out Christmas cards.

About Our Happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

For men only

Does your lady go off nowadays on flights of arithmetical gymnastics about the relative merits of green versus pink versus blue?

Do you suddenly find electric steam irons, toasters and roller skates all over the place, and yet she hasn't demanded an increase in allowance?

Do you wonder why the unusual aspects of your menu are explained vaguely in terms of your having to eat four packages of breakfast food for dinner because she had to finish out the last three pages of a book and the pink store was having a sale and the blue one wasn't?

Well, gentlemen, it's merchandising stamps — all over town — in various colors — and there is just a little something in every woman's soul which creates within her a great satisfaction if she thinks she is getting something for nothing.

As a matter of fact this is the most fun epidemic we have had yet. And speaking of fun — high school Parent's Club "School Night" was held recently and the "old parents" must surely have been in a state over the wild eyed antics of the Freshman mothers and fathers.

Everyone was marched into the Auditorium, shaken down for two bucks dues, then seated for introductions and instructions.

Just hoist skirts and run

The modus operandi from thereon was that by some previously unsuspected natural talent for logistics and navigation you were to get to your offspring's first class room by the time the bell rang — listen to teacher tell you a lot of things about your young you didn't know before — then — with the sound of the bell you were to bolt down the halls, across the corridors and over the unplowed fields in order to get to the next class before the tardy gong.

Heaven help you if your cherub had not made a chart and road map to guide you — also heaven help you if consecutive classes were at opposite ends of the campus. What with not knowing where you were going and being all decked out in your best tight skirt and spike heels so you could impress your children's friends' parents, there was nothing for it but to take off the shoes, hang onto the skirt and sprint.

Old friends elbowed past each other with eyes glazed and lacking in recognition. Others tried to read the letters on the doors by backing off to a readable distance instead of putting on the bi-focals.

This did complicate traffic a little. One mother, playing it solo, was hot-mooted it down the corridor on the double when she passed a pair of parents who were hanging on to each other's hands but pulling in opposite directions. They slid her an envious glance and were heard to mutter, "Better to be alone, no arguments about directions."

Somebody went charging into the gents' gym wildly looking for her daughter's locker — sudden realization — reverse charge!

Well, like old like young — the reward is always food. So after the closing clank of the sixth period the weary and baffled parents limped into the auditorium for cider and doughnuts — having acquired by actual participation a great respect for the navigational acumen of their young.

Learning is so fashionable

And so back to merchandising stamps. If on next Wednesday you are shopping at the Crossroads and want a little rest, relaxation and erudition all at the same time, just come to the Orinda Theater and hear Mrs. Valley's lecture on books and current events. Two dollars if you don't have a season ticket.

Actually, these monthly talks are fascinating from a local angle too. Some ladies arrive casually, as you probably will, wearing sweater and skirt for a monthly lift between grocery bouts. Others, having been "soshing-it-up" at a pre-lecture luncheon at the Country Club or somebody's home, appear all prettied in "elegant country casual" as per the last Vogue.

Well, anything goes and, judging by Mrs. Valley's news coverage in previous years, this will certainly be an interesting lecture — see you there.

INSTRUCTORS TRAINED

A survey of the Acalanes High School District indicates that the average local high school teacher has had five and a half years of college in preparation for his job with the district.

TRANSITIONAL solid cherry by ... WILLETT

ONCE-IN-A-LIFETIME will you find furniture as outstanding as Transitional by Willett. Decorators and home stylists agree that no other contemporary design fits so beautifully in either modern or traditional settings. Transitional is superbly fashioned from richly glowing solid cherry, patiently hand rubbed to a soft satiny finish.

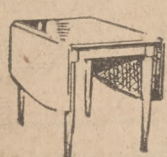

There are over 60 pieces of bedroom, dining room and living room occasional pieces to choose from in open stock. Appropriate upholstered pieces may be special ordered.

Clothes for Orphans Sought

U.S. Air Force reservists are collecting "Clothes for Korean Orphans" at 2040 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, it was announced by Lt. Col. Bill Brown, commander of the Oakland Reserve Center.

Bookmobile Traveling In County

Bookmobile service in Contra Costa County began Wednesday according to Bertha D. Hellum, county librarian.

The custom-built mobile unit will bring the "latest in modern library service" to the suburban areas, she added.

A professional librarian will be in charge of the bookmobile and will provide reader guidance for use of the changing collection of 3,500 books. A driver-clerk will charge, discharge, and shelve books.

The Contra Costa County traveling branch library will give equal service to adults and young people through a rapidly changing book collection. The same liberal inter-library loan system now functioning in the 31 branches and stations will be available through the bookmobile.

The registration of borrowers will be conducted on the bookmobile exactly as it is in the branches.

Schedules of the bookmobile stops will not be printed for distribution during the first month of operation.

"It is difficult," stated Mrs. Hellum, "to give priority to some twenty locations from a list of 247 unserved areas."

Wherever possible the mobile library will be stationed at community shopping centers for a minimum of one hour per day each week.

Many requests have been received from communities, individuals, and organizations asking that their areas be served. As many of these as possible will be included in the first November test runs.

Pomona Grange Plans Meeting

Contra Costa Pomona Grange Home Economics Club held a meeting at the home of its chairman, Mrs. F. C. Kline, 120 North Pleasant Hill Road, Pleasant Hill, yesterday.

A dessert will be served at 12 noon. Please bring your sandwiches. Mrs. James Pringle of Pleasant Hill will be co-hostess.

Final plans for Fellowship Night, which is to be held November 30, in the Clayton Grange Hall, will be completed. The program for this evening will be by Grangers for past and present Grangers.

Mental Health Leaders Will Attend Confab

Mrs. Lloyd Richards, president of the Central Contra Costa Mental Health Association, said recently that several members of the association will attend a Governor's Conference on Mental Health, Wednesday and Thursday in Sacramento.

Keynote speaker at a meeting last week was Dr. Stuart MacRobbie, psychiatrist on the staff of Herrick Memorial Hospital in Berkeley.

He told the group that "The Mental Health Associations can be extremely helpful in spearheading Mental Health education."

"Removing the stigma of shame from mental illness would help to make the mentally ill more willing to come sooner for psychiatric treatment," he added.

Dr. MacRobbie showed the film "Nurse's Day with the Mentally Ill" and pointed out that this was the first time the film was shown to a group outside the Herrick Hospital. The film was primarily devised to encourage nurses to enter psychiatric nursing.

The Mental Health Association can provide speakers, films and pamphlets on a variety of interesting and current Mental Health topics. For information call YE 5-1015 week day mornings.

Taxpayers Install 1956-57 Officers

At its twentieth annual membership meeting at the Hotel Don October 25, the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association installed officers for 1956-57.

Bruce S. Howard of Orinda was installed as president. M. F. Ohman of Pittsburg and Alan H. Johnston of Crockett were officially made vice president and treasurer respectively.

Howard pointed out that civic groups can assist their governmental leaders in the formulation of public policies as contrasted to the subjection of all such organizations in most other areas of the world.

The meeting was attended by more than 100 members and civic leaders. Among the invited guests of the association were the County Board of Supervisors, Senator George Miller Jr., County Assessor C. L. Dunklee and his assistant, Fred Wanaka. Master of ceremonies was Frank Cayting of Orinda.

AUTO PRODUCTION

Automobile production through out the world hit a new high of 13 million during 1955. The United States ran first with a production of 7,920,100 units, Britain was second with 897,600, and West Germany was third with 705,500.

Knights, Dons Meet in 'Big One' Tonight

Runner-Up League Spot Is at Stake

The 1956 prep football season draws to a close tonight as the Diablo Valley League goes into its final round of play. Varsity games are scheduled to start at 8 o'clock, with junior varsity contests to precede them with 5:45 kickoffs.

The big one as far as local fans are concerned is the big traditional battle between Acalanes and Las Lomas.

It's the Las Lomas Knights' home game, and Knight Coach George Dekker announced yesterday that Las Lomas' new lights are ready for dedication at tonight's "Big Little Game."

Prior to that announcement the locale of tonight's game was uncertain. Preparations had been made to play the game at Acalanes Memorial Field if the recently installed Las Lomas lights would not be ready.

THE KNIGHTS wound up in second place in the league last season and appear headed for the same spot in the 1956 season, unless the Dons can upset the apple cart — and if that happens, the Dons will tie the Knights for the runner-up spot.

Mathematically, Las Lomas could tie for first if the Knights defeat the Dons and if Antioch defeats Pittsburg tonight. However, the Pittsburg Pirates are heavy favorites to rap the Antioch Panthers and wind up undefeated for the second consecutive year.

The Acalanes-Las Lomas game should draw a capacity house, with any kind of cooperation on the part of the weatherman.

The Knights have been a consistent club and have but two losses — one a 6-0 loss to Pittsburg in a league game and the other a loss in a practice game with Drake High of Marin County.

THE DONS dropped a practice tilt to Oakland High, losing out in the closing seconds, and they have suffered league setbacks at the hands of Pittsburg (38-7) and Antioch (12-0).

The Dons have looked great in games such as the Alhambra and Diablo encounters, in which they ran and passed pretty much as they pleased, only to drop to a low in such games as the Antioch and Pittsburg contests. In their game with Pleasant Hill the Dons were mediocre.

The Knights have a good line up front, especially from tackle to tackle, with such players as Tom Toland at center, Skip Andregren and Herb Foster at the guard slots and Tom LaPerle and Wally Busch at the tackle spots.

The Dons boast a strong line average line of their own in John Cadwell and Frank Malynn as tackles, Art Batchelder at center and Jim Dinkle and Bill Broderick as guards.

THE TWO LINES have little to choose between them, with Las Lomas having Britt Williams at one end and Roger Duncan at the other. The Dons will probably go with Val Geissler and either Bob Parker or Roger Stevens at the flank.

Las Lomas has a trio of good quarterbacks in Jim Symington, Terry Yeager and Don Crowley. The Dons have a pair with which they hope to match the Knights in Lou Marelo and Richard Markstein.

The Knights have Ken Stevens at full, with Pete Ostrom, the league-leading scorer, at one half and Dick Bergdale going it at the other half.

ONE SURE to start and to go most, if not all, of the game both ways is Webb Johnson, who has played guard, center, end, line-backer and fullback. Moreover, he has been outstanding in each spot.

The Dons' fullback will probably be Stewart Busby, rated by many as the league's best fullback, flanked by halfbacks Harold Ecklund and either Dave Bojarsky or John Woolridge, with George Means also having a good chance to see action early.

If the Dons are up for this one, it could well be the game of the year. If they are down, it's Las Lomas in a walk.

NEW LAS LOMAS LIGHTS will go on for the first time tonight when the Las Lomas Knights and Acalanes Dons clash on the Las Lomas gridiron. The former Oakland Ball Park lights were recently installed. Cost is in excess of $18,000. Subscriptions to help pay for the lights are still being sold by Los Amigos, the Las Lomas parents' club, and the Las Lomas student body. —Sun photo by Mattson

PLEASANT HILL High School's new gym is nearing completion and is expected to be in use in a few weeks. The structure is being admired by this youthful trio—Jim Harrison (left) and Carl Just (right), freshmen at Pleasant Hill High, and Dave White, an eighth-grader at Pleasant Hill Intermediate School. New Las Lomas Arcs to Bring the Dawn to Dons

By ERWIN MATTSON

The Acalanes-Las Lomas football game, which will wind up the season for both clubs, will be played tonight under the newly installed lights of the Las Lomas field.

The lights, which formerly were at the Oaks ball park, will be the best in Northern California. Chances are the Dons in particular will have to wear smoked glasses to cut down the glare, being used to the feeble arcs of Acalanes Memorial Field.

IRONICALLY, when these Memorial Field lights were set up they were the county's best.

The Las Lomas poles are 90 feet high, which gives an even distribution of light.

A break by the weatherman tonight will find Las Lomas jam packed, and at a dollar a head it will be a good first step toward redeeming the bonds. Congratulations are surely in order for the citizens who went out and got the job done.

One thing certain, they did it up right.

BASKETBALL is just around the corner and here again one of the schools, Pleasant Hill, comes up with a fine new gymnasium. The Rams have been without a home court of their own since their inception, having used the Mt. Diablo hardwood for their home stands. All that's changed now, and as a result the casaba game is expected to reach a new high at Pleasant Hill.

One of the big advantages of basketball is that it is played indoors. The weather is not a factor as far as practice games are concerned.

NATURE ALWAYS seem to compensate, however, as basketball is played during the season for colds and flu!

Congratulations are in order for the cross-country team at Acalanes, under Coach Charles Eaton, which has just won the county title in the run at Pacifica.

Don't think of the outland field, and to date are undefeated.

The Don freshman footballers came through with an undefeated season of their own, winding up with a convincing 26-13 win over Las Lomas.

There was a good number of standouts, several of whom will move to the varsity ranks next year. Many more are expected to be top Junior Varsity performers in 1957.

ALT to Present 'Pennypacker' Soon

"The Remarkable Mr. Pennypacker," a gay and wistful account of a crisis in a large family of the '90s by Liam O'Brien, will be the next production of the Alameda Little Theater.

Opening November 16, the comedy will run weekends through December 8. Reservations can be made by calling the box office at LA 3-7665.

Don't throw trash from your car. It's now against the law to be a litterbug. Keep roads clean.

Devils Down Matadors on Final Play

It looked like a tied ballgame between Miramonte and the Diablo Devils right up to the last play. The Matadors had played the league leading Devils on even terms for nearly four quarters, and the score was 12 all.

Then, like a stinging stroke of lightning, Diablo crossed the goal line. Seconds later, the final gun sounded.

THE STANDS were emptying out when the boom fell. The Devils were in the vicinity of the midstream, with the Miramonte goal line some 40 yards away.

It was fourth down. The Devils needed 10 yards for a first down, but with the final seconds ticking away on the scoreboard clock, their only hope, apparently, was a long, desperation pass.

This was their course of action, and their quarterback faded back to follow it.

But, as they had done all day, the Matador forwards charged hard. The Devil receivers raced far downfield, but were well covered by the Miramonte defenders.

IRONICALLY, these good defensive moves were the Matadors' undoing.

Finding his receivers covered, the elusive Devil quarterback dodged past the rushing linemen and pranced all the way to the goal line unmolested.

Stunned by the sudden blow which cost them the game, the local gridgers lined up to defend against the conversion try. But the jubilant Devils put salt in the wound by booting the ball through the posts.

The Orinda club got into hot water in the first quarter when a 13 yard punt put the ball on their own 28 in the hands of the power Devils.

THREE POKES into the line put the ball on the Miramonte 20, but on their final try the Devils took to the air and netted six points.

The conversion try missed, and the score was 6-0.

Following the Diablo kickoff, the Matador quarterback Floyd Blaney aped the Devils' attack and tossed to end Marc Littlejohn for 20 yards.

On the next play, with the ball on the Devil 40, halfback Gary Lucas hit off tackle for 30 yards. Then Lucas, on a handoff from Blaney, reversed the pigskin to halfback Randy Young, who went all the way.

THIS CONVERSION also missed, and it was 6-6.

Diablo's Devils jumped to a 12-6 lead in the second quarter when they scored on a quickie up the middle from 40 yards out. Once again, the extra point try failed.

The lead was short lived, however, as minutes later Lucas intercepted a flat pass just 25 yards from the Devils' goal line. He negotiated the distance without interference from the surprised Devils.

WHAT SEEMED for a long time the deciding point was missed as the ball hit the goal post and bounced back onto the field.

The third period was tight as a cork, and a deadlock seemed imminent.

Then came the fourth quarter, and the minutes ticked away unproductively for both teams until the final play fateful.

Seemingly recovered from their stunning, heartbreaking defeat, the Matadors wind up their league season today when they travel to Pleasant Hill to take on the Rams.

There is a possibility, however, that they will make up a game with Antioch next Tuesday afternoon on their home field.

Pirates Tounce Rams by 46-0

The Pittsburg Pirates were undefeated and atop the league when they met the Pleasant Hill Rams at Concord last Friday night — and they proceeded to stay that way, as they ran and passed at will to roll up a 46-0 win over the Rams.

Scoring two touchdowns in all but the final quarter, when they got but one, the Pirates had things well in hand all the way.

The win assured the Pirates of at least a tie for the circuit title.

IN PITTSBURG's first try at carrying the ball, they wasted little time in scoring, as on the first play Fullback John Nord went 60 yards to score.

In the same quarter Nord repeated his scoring act, going over from 17 yards out to wind up a 70-yard drive.

Two more touchdowns in the second quarter — on a one-yard quarterback sneak by Charles Verdusco and a 23-yard run by Halfback Steve Billeci — brought the halftime count to 27-0 when the Pirates made good on three out of four conversion tries.

IN THE THIRD PERIOD the Pirates added two more touchdowns when End L. V. Nord took

Knights Wallop Spartan Eleven To 28-0 Tune

The Las Lomas Knights stayed in the number 2 spot in league standings, close on the heels of the league-leading Pirates, when they rode roughshod over the Pacifica Spartans last Friday night to notch a 28-0 win. The game was played at Pittsburg.

The Las Lomas eleven was paced offensively by its speedy left halfback, junior Pete Ostrom, who found the going to his liking and posted three touchdowns giving him a league total of 66 points in the circuit's individual scoring standings.

Ostrom tallied in the first quarter when he took the ball the first time the Knights were in possession and rambled for 63 yards and a T.D., going around right end.

LATER in the same period the Knights' end Britt Williams picked off a Pacifica aerial to give the Los Lomas club possession just past the midfield stripe.

Halfback Dick Bergdale put on the scoring act when he took a pass from Quarterback Jim Symington, with the pass and run covering the final 37 yards to the goal stripe.

It was a 0-0 tie in the second quarter, and the halftime score found the Knights holding a comfortable 14-0 lead, although Pacifica threatened twice in the second period, reaching the 28 and 19 yard lines, only to fall short when it came to scoring.

IN THE THIRD quarter the Las Lomas grid machine got back into high gear when it took the ball 56 yards in nine plays, with Ostrom skirting right end for the final seven.

The game's final score came in the final quarter after Tackle Tom LaPerle recovered a Pacifica fumble on Pacifica's 31.

The Knights hit the line for two and then the ever-present Ostrom went around his favorite right end again for 29 yards and 6 points.

"JOE THE TOE" Emmerichs kicked the conversion, as he had the first three tries, to bring the count to 28-0, which was the way the game wound up.

Guards Webb Johnson and Skip Andregren were standouts in the line for Las Lomas, while plaudits went to Pacifica's End Larry Kent, Tackle Bill Brady and Linebacker Frank Coffman.

In the statistics department Las Lomas held a 193-73 yard bulge.

"DOUBLE DOOR," Lafayette Playshop's fall production, will open tonight at the Acalanes High School little theater. In a scene from the mystery melodrama are Joy Merrick (seated) as Caroline Van Bret, and (standing, left to right), Ed Fosdahl as Rip Van Bret, Lloyd Holton as Attorney Mortimer Neff and George Becker as Dr. John Sully.

ROMANCE is symbolized in "Double Door" by Ed Fosdahl and Kay Looz (as Anne, Rip's bride). Tonight's presentation will be repeated tomorrow night and on Friday and Saturday nights of next week. Curtain time is 8:30. —Sun photos by Mattson

Local Realtors To Attend Annual NARB Convention

President Barney Gilbert and member Ken Richardson of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board will join the California delegation of more than 200 realtors at the annual convention of National Association of Real Estate Boards in St. Louis, Mo., tomorrow. John Cotton of San Diego, president of the California Real Estate Association, will head the large delegation, and president-elect for 1957, J. Mortimer Clark of San Francisco, will also attend. The realtors will see many important sessions of the convention and hear speakers Charles E. Wilson, secretary of defense; Albert M. Cole, housing and home finance administrator; Ormonde A. Kieb, assistant postmaster, and Senators John W. Bricker (Ohio) and Barry Goldwater (Arizona). The thousands of convention delegates will also hear former United Nations Assembly president and present Philippine ambassador to the United States, Brig. Gen. Carlos Romulo, and international builder and Arkansas developer, Winthrop Rockefeller.

PEDESTRIANS KILLED
Motor vehicles in the United States killed 8200 pedestrians and injured 150,000 during 1955.

Christian Science

The spiritual basis for true health and peace will be set forth at services this Sunday at Churches of Christ, Scientist, at 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda, and the Hillcrest Congregational Church on Gregory Lane, Pleasant Hill. Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Mortals and Immortals" is the Golden Text from Romans (8:6): "To be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace." Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (265:5): "Mortals must gravitate Godward, their affections and aims grow spiritual, — they must near the broader interpretations of being, and gain some proper sense of the infinite, — in order that sin and mortality may be put off." Among the scriptural selections the following will be read (Matthew 11:28): "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

Rhythm, Laughs, Keep PTA 'Kampaign Kapers' Bright

The danceable rhythms of the "Debonaires" and the laughable antics of the "Laf Frantics" cast helped keep some 75 couples in a festive mood last Saturday night during Burton PTA's "Kampaign Kapers."

In addition to the four piece band and acts from the recently produced hit, bright decorations in the Stanley School auditorium, where the annual dance was held, added to the sparkling atmosphere.

In keeping with the election theme, large elephant and donkey posters decorated the stage and walls. The tables were covered with red, white and blue crepe paper, along with balloons of the same hues.

During intermissions, the coffee and donut bar served as the center of conversational exchanges by the couples. The first prize of a Samsonite card table was won by Mrs. L. W. Felting, who stated she was not the lucky type and was quite surprised to win.

The set of steak knives was won by Robert Evans, while the $20 basket of groceries went to Mrs. Edward R. Ligon.

The Centurians of North Richmond will sing at the Boy Scout Meridian District annual dinner at San Ramon High School, Danville, tonight.

The groups, under the direction of Clifford J. Politeau, comes from the North Richmond Neighborhood House. There are about 20 voices in the choir.

Speaker will be Chandler Young, vice-president of Kaiser Corporation, in charge of public relations. Fran E. Koser will be master of ceremonies. Approximately 500 Scouters and their ladies are expected at the dinner.

Cancer Courage Club to Meet

Dancing and bingo will follow the meeting Sunday of the Cancer Courage Club at the Oakland YMCA, 2101 Telegraph Avenue, Oakland. The monthly meeting will begin at 2:30 a.m.

With all members and their families invited to attend, invitations have also been extended to anyone interested in the problems of cancer.

Refreshments will be served.

Seefried to Sing in S.F.

Irmgard Seefried, leading soprano of the Vienna Opera and the Salzburg Festival, will make her San Francisco recital debut Sunday afternoon, November 18, at 2:30, at the Geary Theater, under the auspices of the California Civic Music and Arts Foundation.

Hailed as one of the world's finest lieder singers, Madame Seefried will offer groups by Schubert, Schumann, Hugo Wolf and Richard Strauss. Paul Ulanowsky will be her piano accompanist.

Tickets are available at Sherman Clay and all agencies.

SCHOOL BURNS
On the night of October 6, 1885, the Orinda Park School was destroyed by fire. "The work of an incendiary, no doubt," was the Schubert, Schumann, Hugo Wolf report.

Cadillac

FOR 1957

Brilliantly new in Beauty...Brilliantly new in Performance!

Represented above are the most significant advancements we have ever been privileged to present to the motoring public.

This is Cadillac for 1957—entirely new in design and engineering . . . and bringing to the world's highways a wholly new standard of motor car quality and excellence.

Cadillac's renowned stylists have created a new Cadillac beauty . . . majestically graceful of line . . . wonderfully exciting in spirit . . . and with a new balance of chrome and glass and steel.

Cadillac's master coachcrafters have brought a new measure of luxury to the car's interiors . . . with gorgeous new fabrics and leathers . . . with new colors and patterns . . . and with marvelous new appointments on every hand.

And Cadillac's world-famous engineers have introduced a sensational new concept of automotive performance . . . with two great new engines . . . with an even smoother, more responsive Hydra-Matic Drive . . . with greatly improved power steering and power braking . . . with a revolutionary new frame design . . . and with a host of other vital engineering advancements.

These dramatic Cadillac achievements are being presented for 1957 in ten individual body styles, including the breath-taking Eldorado series. Each is a Cadillac masterpiece . . . a brilliant tribute to the men who design and build the Standard of the World.

We invite you to see . . . to inspect . . . and to drive the brilliantly new 1957 Cadillac at your very first convenience. You'll be welcome at any time.
